1/11

SB.23.22.1 The Director apprised the board that the university has appointed few faculty members in the discipline of Environmental Studies and placed them in the School of Agriculture. The School of Agriculture does not have Environmental Studies discipline approved, however, the school has housed an approved discipline" Sustainability Science" created for the Chair for Sustainable Development (CSD).

The Director, ACD suggested to the school to get the approval of Sustainability Science discipline through school Board and Academic Council. He further informed that in light of Academic Council decision, a high powered committee (Apex committee) has been formed to look into the distribution of disciplines and placement of faculty members.

He further suggested that the School Board may decide to allow the existing faculty of the Environmental Studies under CSD to continue with their programmes and allow them to carry the programmes along with them subject to the conditions that the outcome of the high power committee will be followed. The Board was of the opinion that the creation of Sustainability Science discipline as suggested by the Director ACD should be revisited and requested the Director to call School Council meeting and submit the agenda in the next School Board meeting.

SB.23.22.2 The Board suggested that the faculty members of the Environmental Studies discipline working under CSD may continue with the programmes.

The meeting was ended with vote of thanks to the Chair.
