THE UNIVERSITY

Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) was established in 1985 by an Act of Parliament (50 of 1985); with the aim of democratizing higher education and reaching out to learners belonging to diverse sections of our population, residing in remote, far flung areas of the country.

On 19th November, 2009, IGNOU entered its 25th year; a significant milestone in its illustrious growth in becoming one of the world's largest universities. The University has undergone rapid expansion and emerged as an international institution in the field of Open and Distance Learning (ODL). The University provides a multi-nodal learning system through print, audio, video, radio, television, teleconferencing, interactive radio counseling, internet-based learning, (on-line) face-to-face interactive sessions, ICTs, counseling and practical's.

The University follows a learner-centric approach, with openness and flexibility in terms of relaxed entry qualifications, and place of study.

The University offers over 486 programmes of study in different levels, ranging from Doctoral to Certificate in its niche with student enrolments of over 3 million. It operates through a strong network of 21 Schools of Study, 12 Divisions, 14 Centers, 63 Regional Centers, over 3000 Learner Support Centers, 67 Partner Institutions spread across 35 countries, over 400 teachers and academics, and more than 1,205 administrative staff. Additional help is also sought from about 6,000 experts from conventional universities and other organizations, and about 45,000 part-time academic counselors.

SCHOOL OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES (SOFL):

The School of Foreign Languages (SOFL) is one of the 21 Schools of Studies at IGNOU, established in 2007. The SOFL at present offers seven foreign languages;

Arabic

Chinese

French

German

Japanese
Persian
Russian
Spanish

SOFL also aims to;

- Offer innovative, flexible and cost-effective foreign language programmes to learners from all sections of the society.
- Offer programmes based on the specific needs of the learners.
- Promote communication across borders and countries.

In view of the existing demand due to its multiple practical applications, the study of foreign languages is gaining lots of importance in the academic studies, and the demand is growing continuously.
