RESEARCH POLICY

Research is an academic institution's most lasting contribution to society. Research activities are normally composed of two main aspects – the production of theoretical knowledge and an integral experiential encounter with subjects constituting the society. Indeed, the body of published material built up by hundreds of researcher-writers and creation of a massive data base from which to retrieve information regularly and which is constantly augmented, corrected and revised is a natural corollary of research activities. This body of published material and the data base constitute the research canon that is central to the functioning of a reputed academic institution like IGNOU and that forms a material expression of its scholarship.

In about twenty years, since its inception, IGNOU's Research Programme has shifted gear from the initial focus on distance education and its methodologies and practices to vital contributions to both theoretical and empirical research in various academic disciplines and interdisciplinary areas. This shift has been smooth without any major impediment and has yielded the desired objective of the creation of a viable 'research canon'. The core of our research endeavour is harnessed to the creation and continual expansion of this research canon.

A principal objective of IGNOU's Research Programme has been to maintain a strong focus on the flow of theoretical ideas and to connect it with the empirical works of subject oriented researches in sciences, social sciences, humanities, management, technology and other disciplines offered by the University as areas of probe and investigation from time to time. There has to be a conjunctive mix of theoretical ideas and extended probes into concrete social situations. It is now commonly agreed that the object of the subject/discipline oriented research is to delineate a methodology of investigation that guarantees the discovery of 'truth' and to prescribe that methodology as canonical imperatives which practicing researchers are obliged to follow. Our research programme has indeed had great practical import; studying the philosophy of research and training into research methods have become important ingredients of our research programme.

FORTY STEPS TO RESEARCH DEGREE

In this section, the important steps which doctoral students are expected to follow are listed. We assure that if you proceed along these steps you should be able to complete your doctoral work in a smooth and effective way. You are advised to keep checking on these steps as you pursue your research.

Steps before Admission into Research Programmes

1. When you first aspire to do your PhD or MPhil through IGNOU you should log on to the IGNOU website at www.ignou.ac.in. The Home Page opens and you get the link Research Degree Programmes there. You will here find detailed information on the Research Degree Programmes of IGNOU viz., MPhil and PhD. You would do well to carefully read and even download this information and choose your area of research based on this information.
2. Now look for Admission Advertisement on the Website. The University advertises for research programmes twice a year, once for the January cycle and second time for the July cycle. The advertisement is placed, almost four months in advance of the impending cycle, on the University website indicating the Disciplines which are offering Research Programmes for particular cycle. Please note that all the Disciplines may not offer Research Programme in both cycles.

3. The Application Form is also placed on the Website. You may download the Application Form and fill in the details. Remember you should respond to each and every item contained in the Application Form. If there is inadequate or wrong information, your Application Form is likely to be rejected.
4. You must ensure that the Application Fee, as indicated in the Advertisement, in the form of Demand Draft drawn in favour of IGNOU payable at New Delhi is made ready before the last date indicated in the Advertisement and is attached with your Application Form.
5. You must ensure that copies of all documents testifying the information submitted by you in the Application are attached along with your Application Form.
6. If you are required to attach a research proposal with your Application Form, you must study the Guidelines : Research Proposal given below and prepare a Research Proposal accordingly. Please note that if you intend to have a supervisor who is not an IGNOU faculty, you will have to attach a CV of the supervisor and a letter of consent from the proposed Supervisor.
7. Kindly note that every Discipline specifies its own criteria for admitting students. Therefore, you are advised to carefully read and understand the requirements of the Discipline you are applying for as given in the Table attached at the end of the Prospectus.
8. Upon the receipt of your Application Form at the Research Unit, IGNOU, an initial scrutiny will be made to examine if all the essential conditions of eligibility are met and relevant documents are attached with the Application Fee.
9. Thereafter, all information contained in your Application Form is recorded in the Master Data Base of the Research Unit. The Application Form is then sent to the concerned Discipline through the related School of Study for further consideration.
10. There is a Doctoral Committee in each Discipline which is vested with the power to decide and manage admissions in the Research Programmes (see Comprehensive Guidelines). The Doctoral Committee will examine the Application Form and may get in touch with you to advise you to revise and resubmit your Research Proposal for which reasonable time will be given to you. The Doctoral Committee will thus shortlist candidates who are found to be suitable for making their presentations before the Doctoral Committee.
11. At the same time, Application Forms of candidates who are supposed to take the Entrance Examination before facing the Interview will be screened and checked for eligibility. The Discipline-wise list of eligible candidates who will appear in the Entrance Examination will be displayed on the Website. Hall Tickets enabling the candidates to take the Entrance Examination will be dispatched by the Research Unit and also displayed on our Website. In case, you do not receive the Hall Ticket dispatched by post, you are advised to download the same from the Website and appear in the Examination. You are advised to regularly check our Website for Research related information and notifications.

12. The Research Unit, in cooperation with Teaching Faculty of the University, will conduct the Entrance Examination on the date fixed for the purpose and announced in advance to help you make your travel arrangements. Generally the Entrance Examinations are organized in the last week of April and September for respective cycles of admission beginning July and January every year.
13. Candidates who are successful in the Entrance Examination will be duly informed and called for Interview/Viva/Presentation of Research Proposal before the Doctoral Committee of the Discipline.
14. Those candidates who are exempted from appearing in the Entrance Examination will also be called to make their presentations before the Doctoral Committee. Here again, the Doctoral Committee may give guidance on your Research proposal. It is at the discretion of the Doctoral Committee to conduct Interview/Viva/Presentations according to the convenience of the Experts.
15. The details of candidates who are finally selected by the Doctoral Committee along with the allotted Supervisor/s in each case will be sent to the School Board for consideration. In the case of MPhil, the Topic of Dissertation will also be decided at the time of Interview/Viva and will be recommended to School Board for consideration.
16. The admission of the candidates recommended by the School Board will be placed for final approval to the Research Council/Research Council Standing Committee after which an Offer Letter for provisional Admission/Registration will be sent by the Research Unit to the candidates. The Offer Letter will inform the candidate about his selection and advise her/him to deposit the required fee for the MPhil/PhD Programme within a stipulated time.
17. It is only when you deposit the fee that you are admitted to the Research Programme technically. You will then be assigned an enrolment number by the Research Unit. Please note that failure to deposit the fee within the stipulated time will result in the cancellation of your admission.
18. If your topic of research and the Research Proposal are not finalised at the time of Interview you may be given a maximum of six month time to work on your research topic to finalize the title, methodology, research approach, and such aspects of your work as are advised by the Doctoral Committee. You will be guided by your Supervisor/s in this matter. You should finalize your topic and Research Proposal within six months of your provisional Admission/Registration. In case you fail to do so, your admission will be cancelled and no refund of fees will be made. Please understand that it is your responsibility to finalize the Research Topic and Research Proposal within the six month period.

Give a broad description of proposed Research Work. Explain important concepts in the study (use more space if needed).

(3) Objectives

Establish the rationale for undertaking the study in the background of work done on that theme or the logic of the originality of your research work; identify gaps in the knowledge and justify the need for the present study (use more space if needed).

(4) Give broad aims of the study and also the specific objectives.

(5) State the hypothesis, if any, which the research intends to examine. In case the study does not contain explicit hypothesis it may be mentioned so.

(6) Review of Literature

Review some important and related Published Works and analyze them in the context of your study (use more space if needed).

(7) Methodology

Write a paragraph on the Research Methodology you propose to use (use more space if needed).

IGNOU Researchers Forum

As outlined in the Research Policy, studying the philosophy of research and training into research methods are important ingredients. Modern research methods have impacted the structures of society and relations of power. They have also remained pervasive in cultural relations throughout the world. The research programmes of the University should therefore draw upon a variety of theoretical positions and their associated strategies and techniques. Moreover, the researchers should also seek to develop adequate and appropriate approaches to subjects that are diverse, hybrid and diasporic. It is felt that the research programmes of the University function in an atmosphere of intellectual exchange and cultural negotiation. Keeping this in mind, the IGNOU Researchers Forum has been formed to provide a platform for interaction among the researchers and to ensure that the essence of the Research Policy is realized. The Forum meets on a regular basis and encourages research scholars to make their presentations and participate in the discussions and debates. The Forum is open, for participation to all teachers, staff and students.

International Collaborations

From time-to-time the University works out schemes which provide an opportunity to enter into international collaborations. Under these schemes students and teachers of the University may visit universities and other institutions overseas for study and interaction.
