PROGRAMME GUIDE

Certificate in Social Work and Criminal Justice System
(CSWCJS)
Printed material is our backbone. Our study material is prepared by teams of experts keeping in view the interest of the learner group. Each Course has a Course Development Committee headed by the Vice-Chancellor and other distinguished academics and professionals involved in the course preparation. The course material is written in such a manner that the students can study it by themselves with a little assistance from our Counsellors at the Study Centres. Further, text books and reference books are available in the libraries attached to the Study Centres and Regional Centres. Therefore, students will have no need for any cheap or condensed guides for following courses of IGNOU. In fact these may harm them. Hence, the University strongly advised the students not to take recourse to such type of guides.

Please keep this Programme Guide safely till you complete the Programme. You will need to consult it throughout the duration of the Programme.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

“The University sends study materials and assignments, wherever prescribed, to the students by registered post and if a student does not receive the same for any reason whatsoever, the University shall not be held responsible for that.”

“In case a student wants to have assignments, he/she can obtain a copy of the same from the Study Centre or Regional Centre or may download it from the IGNOU website - www.ignou.ac.in”

“The students are specifically instructed to send Examination Forms to Registrar (SED) only and to no other place and they are also advised to submit the Registration/Re-registration Forms only at the respective Regional Centres and nowhere else. If any student sends the Registration/Re-registration Forms, Examination Forms at wrong places and thereby misses the scheduled date and consequently a semester/year, he/she will have no claim on the University for regularization.”

2. GENERAL INFORMATION

Crime had always been the concern of every society from the very primitive to the modern times. For the smooth governance of any nation, for attaining the lofty cherished ideals of any country and for attaining all round development of its citizens, every nation ought to develop some strategy for curbing crime. Criminal Justice System is related with the concept of crime and norms of the society to control criminal activities. The basic principle of criminal justice process is that everyone is presumed to be innocent in the eyes of law unless proved otherwise guilty in the court of law. The Indian Criminal Justice System is an old one, and after passing through several phases it has evolved into the present form. However, the Indian Criminal Justice System is grappling with various problems viz. delay in access to justice, inactive legal system, lack of will and coordination between various wings etc. The implication of these lacunae is on the poor marginalized people. Social Work Intervention in Criminal Justice System is thus the need of the hour.

Why we need a programme on Social Work and Criminal Justice System?

Most interventions in prisons across the country are peripheral, volunteer-based, charity oriented and spiritually inclined. Due to absence of trained social workers in prisons, the marginalized prisoners suffer vulnerability in the criminal justice system and in the society. The cadre of trained social workers can help bridge the gap between law and policy and the gaps in implementation of the same. This programme will facilitate the NGO professionals to apply the various social work methods like case work and group work in helping the inmates’ reform and finally reintegrate into the larger society after their release from the correctional settings.

Working in the field of criminal justice system requires a special set of skills and knowledge base. However, very few tailor made training programmes are available to suit the requirements. Training in Social Work and Criminal Justice System is available only in couple of institutions in the country to limited group of students. This programme will help in building a lobby of trained social workers, para-social and legal workers who can provide relief to the marginalized people but also advocate to bring reforms in the Criminal Justice System.

Objectives of this Programme

The objective of this certificate programme is to train a cadre of graduate professionals interested in working in the correctional settings such as jails, family courts, beggars home, special schools for boys and girls, observation home, rescue home etc. Thus, the programme would be relevant for the various NGO professionals who are working in the correctional settings. Specifically, the objectives of the programme are as follows:

i) To develop a cadre of trained para social workers to render humanitarian services in criminal justice system;

ii) To provide knowledge base and skills training to learners alongwith practical experiences to render social and legal services in correctional settings across the country;

iii) To extend professional help to target population in correctional setting; and

iv) To create space and demonstrate humanitarian initiatives that addresses specific issues of marginalized people in criminal justice system.

It is intended that the candidates completing these programmes of study should be able to:

• Understand the concept of deviance and crime;

• Understand the theoretical perspectives on criminal jurisprudence;

• Develop accurate and complete information about various processes of criminal justice administration viz. Police System, Prosecution and defense process, Judicial Process Investigation and Trial Processes;

• Have accurate and complete information about the prison processes like Prison Act, Prison Manual, Prisoners Rights and the Visitorial System;
Understand social work as a profession and the values, principles and ethics of professional social work;

Analyse the linkages between Social Work in Correctional Setting; and Apply at least two of the primary methods of social work practice viz. case work and group work in the Criminal Justice Processes.

Who Can Benefit from these Programmes?

The programme of study will be highly beneficial to a number of people. The specific target learners for this programme of study are:

- Jail functionaries
- Teachers (schools, colleges and universities)
- Persons working with Non Governmental Organisations (NGOs)
- NGO personnel working with the Criminal Justice System.
- Welfare Officers working in the prison
- College and university students
- Legal officers
- Journalists and media professionals
- Persons working in correctional settings
- Counsellors involved in family courts, prisons etc.

Similarly, you have to submit the assignments, field work journals and attempt the term-end examinations in the language you have opted for.

6. INSTRUCTIONAL SYSTEM

The methodology of instruction in this University is different from that in the conventional universities. The Open University System is more learner-oriented, and the student is an active participant in the teaching-learning process. Most of the instruction is imparted through distance rather than face-to-face communication.

The University follows a multi-media approach for instruction. The instructional package comprises:

- Self-instructional printed course material
- Assignments for feed-back and assessment
- Audio and video cassettes
- Face-to-face interaction with academic counsellors at study centres
- Field Practicum
- Telecast of Video programmes on the National network of Doordarshan/Gyan Dharshan
- Broadcast of audio programmes by All India Radio
- Teleconferencing sessions

6.1 Print Material

Print material is the primary form of instructional material, although there will be a few audio-video programmes and counselling sessions. Therefore, you have to concentrate mainly on the printed materials that we send you periodically. The printed material would be sufficient to write assignment responses and prepare for the term end examinations.

How to use Print Material

The print material prepared by the University is self instructional in nature. Each course has been divided into a number of Blocks, generally 4 or 5 Blocks for a 4 credit course. Each Block consists of a number of Units (lessons). Normally, all the Units covered in one Block have a thematic unity. The first page of each Block indicates the contents of each Block i.e., the number and titles of the Units covered in that Block. This is followed by a brief introduction to the Block. This Block introduction explains the total coverage of the Block as a whole as well as the coverage of each Unit in that Block.
Each Unit is structured to facilitate self study for you. The section on Objectives briefly states what we expect you to attain when you have completed the Unit. In Introduction, there is an attempt to forge a link with the topics of the previous Units and the topic to be covered in the present Unit. This is followed by the main body of the Unit, which is divided into various sections and subsections: In the main body there are a few self-check exercises under the caption Check Your Progress. Enough space is given for you to write your answers to the questions set in the self-check exercises. Answers to these exercises are given in the section Answers to Check Your Progress Exercises at the end of the Unit. In some cases, the University provides print materials in A5 size in which the lessons are in the form of full length papers and usually all the units are compiled into one volume for a particular course.

The section Let Us Sum Up summarises what has been said in the whole Unit. This summary enables you to recall the main points covered in the Unit. To facilitate comprehension, important words/terms covered in the Unit are explained in the section Key Words. Some books for additional reading are suggested in the section Some Useful Books. For your reference purpose some of these books may be available in the study centre. The section Terminal Questions/Exercises is intended to give you an idea about the nature of question that may be asked in term end examinations. These question and Check Your Progress Exercises are for, your practice only, and you should not submit answers to these questions to the University for assessment.

Read the Units carefully and note down the important points. You can use the space in the margin of the printed pages for making notes and writing your comments. While reading the Units mark the words that you do not fully understand. Look for the meaning of such words under the section Key Words or in a dictionary. Read the Unit again and again until you have understood the point. You may also try to find it in earlier Units as it may be explained there. However, if you still do not understand something, consult your counsellor during the face-to-face sessions at the Study Centre for clarification.

Try to answer ‘Check Your Progress’ questions. These exercises will help you to reinforce the information/knowledge you gain through your first reading of the text. Proper comprehension of the units and the points/notes made by you while reading through the Units would help you in answering the Check Your Progress Exercises given in the Units. Once you have written the answer in the blank space provided for each question, you can compare your answers with the answers given in the section’ Answers to Check Your Progress Exercises.

Block and Unit Structure

The schematic representation of the unit is as follows:

Unit – X*

Contents

X.0 Aims and Objectives
X.1 Introduction
X.2 Section 1 (Main Theme)
X* stands for the Unit Number
X.2.1 Sub-section 1 of Section 1
X.2.2 Sub-section 2 of Section 1

Check Your Progress

X.2 Section 2 (Main Theme)
As the schematic pattern suggests, the Units are divided into several sections and sub-sections for easy reading and comprehension. Each section is indicated distinctly by bold capitals and each subsection by relatively smaller but bold typeface, so as to make it easier for you to locate and identify them. For purposes of maintaining uniformity we have employed the same pattern of presenting the text throughout the Course.

Section ‘X.0’ i.e., Aims and Objectives in each Unit tells you briefly:

• The content presented in the Unit, and
• What we expect you to learn once you complete the Unit.

The last section of each Unit is ‘Let Us Sum Up’. For purposes of recapitulation and ready reference, we summarize the text of the whole Unit in this section.

6.2 Audio-Video Material

In addition to the print material, audio and video tapes have been prepared for each course. The audio-video material is supplementary to the printed material. Hence, we advise you to make use of it, as that will help you to understand the subject better. Video programmes are transmitted by Doordarshan every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 6.30 to 7.00 in the morning. The Schedule of transmission is communicated to you through the IGNOU Newsletter.

Audio programmes are broadcast in some select states also through Radio stations. Information about these would be available at your Regional Centre.

The telecast schedule for transmission of programmes through Gyan Darshan is communicated through a monthly booklet. Audio-video material will not be supplied individually but will be made available to you at the Study Centres. You can watch these programmes during counselling sessions. Students desirous of buying the audio-video tapes can procure them from: Director, Electronic Media Production Centre, IGNOU, Maidan Garhi, New Delhi-110 068.

6.3 Interactive Radio Counselling

The University has started interactive counselling through AIR network all over India. You can participate in it by tuning in to your area Radio station. Experts from various discipline areas are available for this counselling. Students can put across their questions to these experts by using the telephone. The telephone numbers are announced by respective Radio Stations. This counselling is available on every Sunday between 4 and 5 in the evening.

6.4 Gyan Darshan

IGNOU in collaboration with Doordarshan now has an exclusive Educational TV Channel of India called Gyan Darshan. It is available through cable TV network. The channel telecasts educational programmes for 24 hours every day. Apart from programmes of IGNOU it will have educational programmes produced by various national education institutions. You should try to (get access to it through your cable operator. The schedule of programmes with time and date is sent to all study centers one month in advance. Please obtain it from there.

6.5 Teleconferencing

To reach our students spread in different parts of the country we take the help of teleconferencing. These sessions are conducted from Delhi. The students can attend these at the regional centres and specified study centres of IGNOU. It is a one way video and two way audio facility. You will be sent a schedule with topics in advance through your study centres. The faculty at Delhi and other experts as resource persons participate in these sessions. You can put your problems and questions to these experts through the telephone available at receiving centres. These will help in resolving your queries related to courses and other general information pertaining to programmes of study.

6.6 Counselling

In distance education, face-to-face contact between the learners and their tutors/counsellors is an important activity. The purpose of such a contact is to answer some of your questions and clarify your doubts which may not be possible through any other means of communication. It is also intended to provide you an opportunity to meet fellow students. There are experienced academic counsellors at the Study Centres to provide counselling and guidance to you in the courses that you have chosen for study. The counselling sessions for each of the courses will be held at suitable intervals throughout the academic session. The counselling sessions are not compulsory. However, they may be very useful in certain respects such as: to share your views on the subject with teachers and fellow participants, comprehend some of the complex ideas or difficult issues, and get clarifications for many doubts which you would not otherwise try to raise, and consult academic counsellors for selecting courses of study.

Face-to-face counselling will be provided to you at the study centre assigned to you. You should note that the counselling sessions will be very different from the usual classroom teaching or lectures. Counsellors will not be delivering lectures or speeches. They will try to help you to overcome difficulties (academic as well as personal) which you face while studying for this programme. In these sessions you must look into the subject based difficulties and any other issues arising out of such difficulties. Besides, some of the audio and video cassettes that are available at that time will be played in the counselling sessions.

Before you go to attend the counselling sessions, please go through your course material and note down the points to be discussed. Unless you have gone through the Units, there may not be much to discuss. Try to concentrate on the relevant and the most important issues. Also try to understand each other’s points of view. You may also establish personal contact with your fellow participants to get mutual help for academic purposes. Try to get the maximum possible help from your counsellors.

Generally there will be 10 counselling sessions for an 8 credit course and 5 sessions for a 4 credit course. For Field Work guidance, details are given in the Field Work Journal.

6.7 Social Work Practicum in Correctional Settings (Field Work) (8 Credits)

You are expected to successfully complete 8 credits of Field Work Practicum under the guidance of a professionally qualified Social Worker. You need to keep in touch with your coordinator at the Study Centre for assigning a Supervisor. You have to take necessary guidance from your supervisor to initiate and complete all the formalities for the practicum.

The practicum would include orientation visits to jails, family courts, beggars home, observation homes, rescue homes etc. During concurrent field visits, students are expected to conduct five case

Your completed Field Work Journals should reach the Student Evaluation Division latest by 30\textsuperscript{th} November for December Term-end result and 30\textsuperscript{th} May for June Term-end result.

6.8 Study Centres

To provide effective student support, we have set up a number of Study Centres all over the country. You will be allotted one of these Study Centres taking into consideration your place of residence or work. However, each Study Centre can handle only a limited number of students and despite our best efforts, it may not always be possible to allot the Study Centre of your choice. The list of Study Centres is provided in section 14 of this Programme Guide. The particulars regarding the Study Centre to which you are assigned will be communicated to you.

Every Study Centre will have:

- A Coordinator who will coordinate different activities at the centre.
- An Assistant Coordinator and other supporting staff appointed on a part-time basis.
- Counsellors in different courses to provide counselling and guidance to you in the courses you have chosen.

A Study Centre will have six major functions:

1) Counselling: Face-to-face counselling for the courses will be provided at the Study Centres. Generally, as stated earlier, there will be 10 counselling sessions for an 8 credit course and 5 sessions for a 4 credit course. The detailed programme of the counselling sessions will be sent to you by the Coordinator of your Study Centre.

2) Evaluation of Assignments: Tutor Marked Assignments (TMA) will be evaluated by the Counsellors appointed for different courses at the Study Centre. These assignments will be returned to you with tutor comments and marks obtained. These comments will help you in your studies.
3) Library: For each course some of the books suggested under ‘Some Useful Books’ will be available in the Study Centre Library. All audio and video tapes are also available in the library.

4) Information and Advice: At the Study Centre you get relevant information regarding the courses offered by the University, counselling schedules, examination schedule, etc. You will also get guidance in choosing your elective and application-oriented courses.

5) Audio-Video Facilities: The Centres are equipped with audio-video facilities to help you make use of the audio and video cassettes prepared for different courses. Media notes of these audio-video programmes will also be available at the Study Centre. This will help you to know the contents of each programme.

6) Interaction with Fellow-Students: In the Study Centres you get an opportunity to interact with fellow students.

   Please bring all your Units and your folder of corrected assignments with you when you come to the counselling session.

7. EVALUATION

Evaluation will be done on the basis of: (a) continuous assessment of assignments (30 per cent of total weightage) (b) a term-end written examination (70 per cent of the total weightage).

Evaluation of Social Work Practicum in Correctional Settings

Evaluation of MSWL – 033 will be done by your supervisor (50 out of 100 marks) and by External Evaluation (50 out of 100 marks). You must score 35% separately in both internal (supervisor) and external evaluation. If you fail in any one component, you will have to repeat the practicum.

Evaluation will be done on a five point scale using the letter grades A,B,C,D,E. The notional correlates of the letter grades and point grade range are given below:

Grading System

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Notional Correlates</th>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Grade Point</th>
<th>Point Grade Range</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Excellent</td>
<td>A</td>

</tbody>
</table>

As stated earlier, evaluation in each course has following two components:

Term-end Examination and Continuous Assessment

A student must score at least ‘D’ in the Continuous Assessment as well as the term-end examination. BUT IN THE OVERALL COMPUTATION HE/SHE MUST HAVE AT LEAST ‘C’ GRADE IN EACH COURSE, TO QUALIFY FOR A CERTIFICATE. The minimum grade which must be obtained in the Practicum Report is also ‘C’. Thus, it is necessary for the student to score overall at least ‘C’, in each of the three courses of the Certificate programme.
7.1 Assignments - Instructions

You must have received a set of assignments along with the set of print materials sent to you. In case you have not received it, please send your request in prescribed form (specimen given at to:

Registrar
Material Production & Distribution Division (MPDD)
IGNOU, Maidan Garhi
New Delhi – 110 068

You have to do one assignment for each course. Thus, in the Certificate Programme you will have to work on two assignments for two courses. All the two assignments are ‘Tutor Marked Assignments’ (TMAs). This means you will have to do one TMA for each course. For the Practicum Work there are no assignments. You can always download the latest set of assignments from the web, i.e. www.ignou.ac.in.

Are you wondering what we expect from you in these assignments?

Assignments constitute the continuous evaluation component of a course. They can be done in your home or work place or library or any other place you think has the right environment. You may consult suitable persons, books, or other sources for the completion of your assignments. An assignment, therefore, is not like writing an answer book in an examination hall. It is, however, equally important as grades are assigned to an assignment. As mentioned earlier, the assignments carry 30 per cent weightage. The marks that you get in your assignments will be counted in your final result. Therefore, you are advised to attempt your assignments seriously. The main purpose of assignments is to test your comprehension of the learning material you receive from the university. The information given in the printed course material is normally considered sufficient for answering the assignments. Please do not worry about the non-availability of extra reading material for working on the assignments. However, if you have easy access to other books, you may use them. But the assignments are designed in such a way as to help you concentrate mainly on printed course material and your personal experience.

Some of the assignments are knowledge based and some are of applied nature. Assignments which are knowledge based will require you to write essay type answers. For answering applied type of assignments you should apply the knowledge you have gained by going through a Unit/Block/Course. In either case, the answers should be your own. You must not reproduce text material verbatim or copy the information from other sources. However, you can make use of the material and information you have at your disposal in an innovative way. Whenever you quote from the text/books/journals, you must give the reference. You can pick up ideas from whatever sources you may have. However, plan and use them in your own words when you write the answers to the assignments.

The following norms have to be strictly practised when you work on the assignments:

- The answer should be precise, well documented and relevant to the question.
- Keep the word-limit of the answer in mind. A slight variation in length does not matter. But your answer should not be too short or too lengthy. Avoid discussing minor issues at great length. By setting a word-limit for some of the assignments we mean to convey that a reasonably adequate response can be presented within the suggested word-limit.
- Whenever you receive a set of assignments, check them immediately. If there are some missing pages, ask for them from:
The assignment you have attempted should be complete in all respects. Before submission you should ensure that you have answered all the questions in assignments. Incomplete answer-sheets will bring you poor grades.

You must submit your assignments according to the schedule indicated in the assignments. The University/Coordinator of the Study Centre has the right to reject the assignments received after the due date. You are, therefore, advised to submit the assignments before the due date. In case you get the assignments and study material late, the assignment responses should be submitted within one month of the date of receipt of study material and assignment or within the due date given in this schedule whichever is later.

For your own record, retain a copy of all the answers to assignments which you submit to the Coordinator of your Study Centre. If you do not get back the evaluated tutor marked assignments within a month of their submission, please try to get them from your study centre personally. This may help you to improve the answers to your future assignments.

Maintain an account of all the corrected responses to assignments received by you after evaluation. This will help you to correspond with the University in case any problem arises in future.

If you are unable to submit the assignments or are unable to score the minimum qualifying grade ‘D’, you have to collect, attempt and submit the assignments meant for the next batch of students. The request for new assignments in prescribed form (specimen may be addressed during the months of May and June or November and December to:

Registrar
Material Production & Distribution Division (MPDD)
IGNOU, Maidan Garhi
New Delhi – 110 068.

In case you find that the score indicated in the assignment sheet of your assignments has not been correctly reflected in your grade card; you are advised to contact the coordinator of your study centre with a request to forward correct authenticated award list to the Director (Student Registration Division) IGNOU.

Once you get the pass grade in an assignment, you cannot re-submit it for improvement of grade. Assignments are not subject to re-evaluation except for factual errors, if any. The discrepancy noticed by you in the evaluated assignments should be brought to the notice of the Coordinator of the Study Centre.

Do not enclose or express doubts for clarification, if any, alongwith the assignments. Send requests for seeking clarifications in a separate cover to:

Registrar (Student Registration Division), IGNOU
Maidan Garhi, New Delhi – 110 068.

When doing so give your complete enrolment no., name, address, title of the course, and the number of the unit or the assignment, etc., on the top of your letter.
Specific Instructions for Tutor Marked Assignments (TMAs)

1) Write your Enrolment Number, Name, Full Address, Signature and Date on the top right hand corner of the first page of your response sheet.

2) Write the Programme Title, Course Code, Course Title, Assignment Code and Name of your Study Centre on the left hand corner of the first page of your response sheet. Course Code and Assignment Code may be reproduced from the Assignments.

   The top of the first page of your response sheet for each assignment should thus look like the following:

   PROGRAMME TITLE ........................................ ENROLMENT NO. ........................................
   PROGRAMME CODE ........................................ NAME ........................................................
   COURSE CODE ............................................. ADDRESS ...................................................
   . ........................................................................................................................................
   . ........................................................................................................................................
   COURSE TITLE ............................................
   ASSIGNMENT CODE .................................... SIGNATURE ................................................
   STUDY CENTRE .......................................... DATE .........................................................

3) Read the assignments carefully and follow specific instructions, if any, given along with the assignments.

4) Go through the units on which the assignments are based. Note the points relating to the question, rearrange those points in a logical order and work out a rough outline of your answer. While attempting a long answer type question, give adequate attention to the introduction and the conclusion. In the introduction you should give your brief interpretation of the question and how you propose to develop the answer. The conclusion should summarise your response to the question. Make sure that the answer is logical and coherent. The answer should be divided into appropriate paragraphs. The answer should be relevant to the question given in the assignment. Make sure that you have attempted all the main points of the question. Once you are satisfied with your answer, write down the final version neatly and underline the points you wish to emphasise.

5) Use only foolscap size paper for your response and tie all the pages carefully. Avoid using thin paper. Allow a 4 cm margin on the left side and at least a few lines in between each answer. This may facilitate the evaluator to write useful comments on the margin at appropriate places.

6) Do not copy from the response sheets of other students. If copying is noticed, the assignments of such students will be rejected.

7) Answers to each assignment should be written on a separate set of papers. Typed assignments are also acceptable.
8) Write the question number and the question before writing the answer.

9) The completed assignment should be sent only to the Coordinator of the Study Centre allotted to you.

10) After submitting the assignment at the Study Centre, get the acknowledgement from the Coordinator on the prescribed assignment remittance-cum-acknowledgement card.
