

To successfully complete the CAFE programme, one has to complete the two compulsory courses, namely BFE: 101 and BFE: 102 and any of the two electives, from the four electives, namely BFEE: 101, BFEE: 102, BFEE: 103 and BFEE: 104.

DAFE

Provide knowledge about HIV/AIDS, family life education and substance abuse
Issues involved in HIV/AIDS and behavior modification
Introduces to family life education including sexual health education
Imparts skills needed for healthy human relationships, communication and decision making behaviour

BFE-101

Basics of HIV/AIDS

To know about what is public health in the context of HIV/AIDS
To trace the history of HIV/AIDS, right to autonomy of patients, implication of testing

Assessment

Assignment and Term-end exam

BFE-102

Basics of Family Education

Concept, meaning and importance of family life education along with the role of various agencies
Provide clarity on the concept of sexual health education which is different from family life education

Assessment

Assignment and Term- end exam

BFEE-101

Elective on HIV/AIDS

Legal aspects related to HIV/AIDS
Guiding Healthcare workers
Issues pertaining vulnerable groups

Assessment

Assignment and Term- end exam

BFEE-102

Elective on Family Education

Critical issues in marital life
Family planning policies and methods
Family counselling and social work

Assessment

Assignment and Term-end exam

BFEE-103

Alcohol, Drugs and HIV

Problems of substance abuse and its relevance to HIV
Implications of substance abuse on the individual, family
Prevention and treatment modalities

Assessment

Assignment and Term-end exam

BFEE-104

Communication and Counselling in HIV/AIDS

Communication in relation to HIV
Components of counselling and practical issues
Fields of counselling

Assessment

Assignment and Term- end exam