23. General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity and Contributory Provident Fund-cum-Gratuity.

- (1) The management of the following schemes:
 - (a) General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme (Appendix A); and
 - (b) Contributory Provident Fund-cum-Gratuity Scheme (Appendix B) shall be vested in the Board of Management.
- (2) The provisions of this Statute shall be deemed to have come into effect from 20th September, 1985. The provisions relating to pension including extraordinary pension and gratuity made in the Schemes shall, however, come into effect with effect from 1.1.1986.

Definitions

- (3) In these schemes, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,
 - (a) “employee” means any person appointed by the University as a member of its staff and includes teachers and other academic staff of the University.
 - (b) “emoluments” means the pay as defined in clause 3(h), dearness pay which the employee was receiving immediately before his retirement or on the date of his death. It also includes interim relief and ad hoc dearness allowance for the purpose of retirement pension and gratuity.

Note

- (1) In respect of persons who have come over to the revised scales of pay introduced w.e.f 1.1.86 emoluments mean basic pay only from that date.
- (2) If an employee immediately before his retirement or relinquishment of service, has been absent from duty on leave with allowances, his emoluments for purposes of calculating service gratuity/or death or retirement gratuity shall be taken as what he would have drawn had he not been absent from duty:

Provided that the amount of gratuity is not increased on account of increase in pay not actually drawn and that the benefit of higher officiating or temporary pay is given only if it is certified that he would have continued to hold the higher officiating or temporary appointment but for his proceeding on leave.

- (3) Pay drawn by an employee while on foreign service shall not be treated as emoluments but the pay which he would have drawn under the University had he not been on foreign service shall alone be treated as emoluments.
- (4) Pay includes the pay drawn on tenure appointment(s).

Statute 23, made by the Board of Management at its meeting held June 24 1988 and received approval of the Visitor vide letter No. F.5-68/88-U.I. (Desk) dated August 26, 1988.

- (c) “Average Emoluments” means the average of the emoluments as defined above calculated in respect of the last ten months of service:

Provided that if, during the last 10 months of service, a person has been absent from duty on leave without allowances or suspended under such circumstances that the period of suspension does not count as service, the period so passed shall be disregarded in the calculation of average emoluments and an equivalent period prior to 10 months being included.

- (d) “family” for the purpose of General Provident Fund and Contributory Provident Fund means:

- (i) in the case of male subscriber, the wife or wives and children of a subscriber and the widow or widows and children of a deceased son of the subscriber; provided that if a subscriber proves that his wife has been judicially separated from him or has ceased under the customary law of the community to which she belongs to be entitled to maintenance, she shall henceforth be deemed to be no longer a member of the subscriber’s family in matters to which these rules relate, unless the subscriber subsequently intimates in writing to the Finance Officer that she shall continue to be regarded;
- (ii) in the case of female subscriber, the husband and children of a subscriber and the widow or widows and children of a deceased son of a subscriber provided that if a subscriber by notice in writing to the Finance Officer expresses her desire to exclude her husband from her family, the husband shall henceforth be deemed to be no longer a member of the subscriber’s family in matters to which these rules relate, unless the subscriber subsequently cancels such notice in writing.

Note

Child means legitimate child and includes an adopted child where adoption is recognised by the personal law governing the subscriber.

- (e) “Finance Officer” means Finance Officer of the University.
- (f) “fund” means the General Provident Fund or the Contributory Provident Fund of the University as per context.
- (g) “leave” means any variety of leave recognised by the University.
- (h) “pay” means the amount drawn monthly by a person as pay which has been sanctioned for the post held by him substantively or in an officiating capacity and includes dearness pay, special pay, personal pay and deputation duty allowance, if any.

Note

In respect of persons who have come over to the revised scale of pay introduced with effect from 1.1.86, pay means “basic pay” only.

- (i) “personal pay” means additional pay granted to a person

- (i) to save him from a loss of substantive pay in respect of a permanent post owing to revision of pay or to any reduction of such substantive pay otherwise than as disciplinary measure; or
 - (ii) in exceptional circumstances on other personal considerations.
- (j) “qualifying service” means service rendered by an employee in a substantive capacity including periods spent on probation. All service rendered in the University on a full time basis in a temporary or officiating capacity without interruption followed by confirmation in the same or another post shall count as qualifying service except in respect of periods of service paid from contingencies.

Explanation I: Counting of period of leave as qualifying service:

- (i) All periods of leave with pay and allowances shall count as qualifying service.
- (ii) The period spent on deputation or training or deputation for any special purpose including periods of travel to and from the country of deputation, shall count as qualifying service; provided that if the employee has availed himself of any extraordinary leave without allowances during the period of deputation, the period of such extraordinary leave shall be excluded except as provided under Note below sub-clause (ii) of Explanation II.

Explanation II: Periods not counting as qualifying service:

- (i) Time passed under suspension by a member of the staff pending inquiry into his conduct where on conclusion of the inquiry he has not been fully exonerated or the suspension is not held to have been wholly unjustified; unless the Board of Management expressly declares at the time that it shall count, and then it shall count only to such extent as the Board of Management may declare.
- (ii) Extraordinary leave without allowances.

Note

Extraordinary leave may be allowed to count at the discretion of the appointing authority in the following instances:

- (1) if it is taken on appointment in another University/Institution or any other Authority and that University/Institution/Authority or the person concerned makes necessary contribution towards his pension;
 - (2) if it is taken on medical certificates;
 - (3) if it is taken due to the inability of the person concerned to join or rejoin duty due to civil commotion or a natural calamity or any other cause beyond his control provided that he has no other type of leave to his credit; and
 - (4) if it is taken for academic pursuits directly connected with the teaching/ research job of the employees in the University.
- (iii) Unauthorised absence in continuation of authorised leave of absence.

- (iv) Service below the age of 18 years.

Explanation III Addition to qualifying service:

An employee may add to his service qualifying for superannuation pension but not for any other class of pension the actual period not exceeding one-fourth of the full length of his service or the actual period by which his age at the time of recruitment exceeds twenty- five years or a period of five years, whichever is least, if the post is one:

- (a) for which Post-Graduate Research or specialist qualifications or experience in scientific, technological or professional field is essential; and
- (b) to which candidates of more than twenty-five years of age are normally recruited.

Provided that this concession shall not be admissible to any such employee unless his actual qualifying service at the time he quits University service is not less than ten years. The decision to grant this concession shall be taken by the Board of Management at the time of recruitment of the employee.

Explanation IV

- (a) The Board of Management may, by order condone interruption in service up to a period of one year under the following circumstances:
 - (i) The interruptions should have been caused by reasons beyond the control of the employees:
 - (ii) the total service excluding one or more interruptions, if any, should not be less than five years duration:
 - (iii) the interruption, including two or more interruptions, if any should not exceed one year.
- (k) “special pay” means an addition in the nature of pay to the emoluments of a post or of a person granted in consideration of the specially arduous nature of his duties or of a specific addition to his work or responsibility.
- (l) ‘tenure post’ means a permanent post which an individual may not hold for more than a limited period.
- (m) “year” means the financial year of the University.
- (n) “university” means the Indira Gandhi National Open University.
- (o) “Registrar” shall mean the Registrar of the Indira Gandhi National Open University dealing with Administration.
- (p) “Vice-Chancellor” means the Vice-Chancellor of the Indira Gandhi National Open University.

(4) (a) Application of Statutes

A person who joins the University service on or after the 20th September, 1985 shall opt for one of the two alternative schemes set out in Appendices A and B to this Statute. The option provided for in this sub-clause shall be exercised and communicated to the Registrar in writing within 3 months of the date of notification of the General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme and Contributory Provident Fund-Cum-Gratuity Scheme or within 3 months of joining the University service in the case of a new entrant and, option when once exercised, shall be final.

A person who does not exercise his option within the aforesaid period of three months, shall be deemed to have opted for the General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme set out in Appendix 'A'.

- (b) A person who holds a temporary appointment in the service of the University shall, after continuous service of one year, be entitled to the benefits of the General Provident Fund-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme set out in Appendix 'A' to this Statute, or according to his option of the Contributory Provident Fund-cum-Gratuity Scheme set out in Appendix 'B' to this Statute, from the date of commencement of service.
- (5) The provisions of this Statute shall not apply to purely temporary and daily wage staff, persons appointed on consolidated salary or on special terms and deputationists. The pensioners re-employed after Superannuation are eligible only for Contributory Provident Fund. The persons appointed on contract, for a fixed term, shall be governed by the provisions of Appendix 'B' to this Statute. No person who is permitted to subscribe to the Contributory Provident Fund shall be eligible to subscribe to the General Provident Fund.

Provided that a person who is initially appointed on contract and is subsequently continued permanently shall have on cancellation of his contract terms, the option to choose either of the two Schemes set out in Appendices A and B and he shall have for the purpose of the schemes the benefit of the service rendered under contract, if the retirement benefits under the contract terms are paid back by him to the University.

6. (i) Transfer of employees from Central Government, Central University or autonomous bodies of Central Government

Where an employee of Central Government/Central University/autonomous body of Central Government including a statutory body is permanently absorbed in the University, such of the past services rendered by him as would have counted for retirement benefits in that Government/organization shall count for retirement benefits payable by the University subject to the following:

Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, where, without showing sufficient cause.

- (a) the Claimant fails to communicate his statement of claim in accordance with Sub-Clause (i) of Clause (6), the Tribunal shall terminate the proceedings;
- (b) the respondent fails to communicate his statement of defence in accordance with Sub-Clause (i) of Clause (6), the Tribunal shall continue the proceedings without treating the failure in itself as an admission of the allegations by the claimant;
- (c) a party fails to appear at an oral hearing or to produce documentary evidence. The Tribunal may continue the proceedings and make the award on the evidence before it.

- (10) Expert appointment by the Tribunal:
- (i) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the Tribunal may
 - (a) appoint one or more experts to report to it on specific issues to be determined by the Tribunal, and
 - (b) require a party to give the expert any relevant information or to produce, or to provide access to any relevant documents and materials for his inspection.
 - (ii) Unless otherwise, agreed by the parties, if a party so requests or if the Tribunal considers it necessary, the expert shall, after delivery of his written or oral report, participate in an oral hearing where the parties have the opportunity to put questions to him and to present expert witnesses in order to testify on the points at issue.
 - (iii) Unless otherwise agreed by the parties, the expert shall, on the request of a party make available to that party for examination all documents, relevant material in the possession of the expert, with which he was provided in order to prepare his report.
- (11) The Meetings of the Tribunal shall be conducted by the Umpire nominated by the Visitor on a Tribunal.

APPENDIX 'A'

(to Statute 23-refer to 23 (i) (a))

GENERAL PROVIDENT FUND-CUM-PENSION-CUM GRATUITY SCHEME

SECTION 1

GENERAL PROVIDENT FUND

1. Nominations

- 1.1 A subscriber shall, at the time of joining the Fund, send to the Finance Officer, a nomination in the prescribed form conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund, in the event of his death, before that amount has become payable or having become payable has not been paid:
 - 1.1.1 Provided, that if, at the time of making nomination, the subscriber has a family the nomination shall not be in favour of any person or persons other than the members of his family.
 - 1.1.2 Provided further that the nomination made by the subscriber in respect of any other fund to which he was subscribing before joining the Provident Fund shall, if the amount to his credit, in such other fund, has been transferred to his credit in the Fund, be deemed to be a nomination duly made under this rule until he makes a nomination in accordance with this rule.
- 1.2 If a subscriber nominates more than one person under Rule 1.1 he shall specify in the nomination the amount or share payable to each of the nominees in such manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund at any time.
- 1.3 Every nomination shall be in the Form I appended.
- 1.4 A subscriber may at any time cancel a nomination by sending a notice in writing to the Finance Officer. The subscriber shall, along with such notice or separately, send a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this rule,
- 1.5 A subscriber may provide in a nomination:
 - (a) in respect of any specified nominee, that in the event of his predeceasing the subscriber, the right conferred upon that nominee shall pass to such other person or persons as may be specified in the nomination, provided that such other person or persons shall if the subscriber has other members of his family, be such other member or members. Where the subscriber confers such a right on more than one person under this clause, he shall specify the amount or share payable to each of such persons in such a manner as to cover the whole of the amount payable to the nominees.

Statute 23 (Appendix A) approved by the Board of Management in its 9th meeting held on 24-6-1988, and assented by the visitor as per the Ministry's letter No. F.5.68/88-UI (DESK) dt. 26-8-88

- (b) that the nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening of a contingency specified therein;

Provided that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has no family, he shall provide in the nomination that it shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring a family;

Provided further that if at the time of making the nomination the subscriber has only one member of the family he shall provide in the nomination that the right conferred upon the alternate nominee under clause (a) shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring other member or members of his family.

- 1.6 Immediately on the death of a nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination under clause (a) of Rule 1.5 or on the occurrence of any event by reason of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of clause (b) of Rule 1.5 or the proviso thereto, the subscriber shall send to the Finance Officer a notice in writing cancelling the nomination, together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provisions of this rule.
- 1.7 Every nomination made and every notice of cancellation given by the subscriber shall, to the extent that it is valid, take effect on the date on which it is received by the Finance Officer.
- 2. The University will not be bound by, nor shall it recognise, any assignment or encumbrance executed or attempted to be created which affects the disposal of the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber who dies before the amount becomes payable.
- 3. Subscriber's Account
 - 3.1 An account shall be opened in the name of each subscriber in which will be shown:
 - (i) his subscriptions;
 - (ii) interest as provided in Rule 6 on subscriptions; and
 - (iii) advances and withdrawals from the fund.
 - 3.2 If an employee admitted to the benefit of the fund was previously a subscriber to any contributory/non-contributory provident fund of the Central Government/State Government or of a body corporate, owned or controlled by Government or Universities/ Institutions of University Status or an autonomous organisation registered under the Societies Registration Act 1860, the amount of his accumulations in such contributory or non-contributory provident fund shall be transferred to his credit in the fund.
- 4. Conditions of Subscription
 - 4.1 Every subscriber shall subscribe monthly to the Fund except during the period when he is under suspension.
 - 4.1.1 Provided that a subscriber may at his option not subscribe during leave which either does not carry any leave salary or carries leave salary equal to or less than half pay.

4.1.2 Provided further that a subscriber on reinstatement after a period passed under suspension shall be allowed the option of paying in one sum or in instalments any sum not exceeding the maximum amount of arrear of subscription payable for that period.

4.2 The subscriber shall intimate his election not to subscribe during leave by a written communication addressed to the Finance Officer before he proceeds on leave. Failure to make due and timely intimation shall be deemed to constitute an election to subscribe. The option of a subscriber intimated under this sub-rule shall be final.

5. Rates of Subscription

5.1 The amount of subscription shall be fixed by subscriber himself subject to the following conditions:

5.1.1 The rate of subscription may not be less than 6 percent of his emoluments and not more than his total emoluments, the amount so calculated being rounded off to the nearest rupee, provided that in the case of subscriptions at the minimum or maximum rates, the rounding off will be to the next higher or the next lower rupee respectively.

5.1.2 It shall be expressed in whole rupees.

5.2 For the purpose of this rule, the emoluments of a subscriber shall be:

5.2.1 In the case of a subscriber who was in service on 31st March of the preceding year, the emoluments to which he was entitled on that date, provided as follows:

- (i) if the subscriber was on leave on the said date and elected not to subscribe during such leave or was under suspension on the said date, his emoluments shall be the emoluments to which he was entitled on the first day after his return to duty;
- (ii) if the subscriber was on deputation out of India on the said date or was on leave on the said date and continues to be on leave and has elected to subscribe during such leave, his emoluments shall be the emoluments to which he would have been entitled had he been on duty in India;
- (iii) if the subscriber joined the Fund for the first time on a day subsequent to the said date, his emoluments shall be the emoluments to which he was entitled on such subsequent date.

5.2.2 In the case of a subscriber who was not in service on the 31st of March of the preceding year, the emoluments to which he was entitled on the first day of his service or, if he joined the Fund for the first time on a date subsequent to the first date of his service, the emoluments to which he was entitled on such subsequent date.

- 5.3 The amount of subscription so fixed maybe (a) enhanced twice during the course of the year (b) or reduced once at any time during the course of a year (c) reduced and enhanced as aforesaid provided that when the amount of subscription is so reduced it shall not be less than the minimum prescribed under Rule 5.1.1.
- 5.4 Provided further that if a subscriber is on leave without pay or leave on half pay for a part of a calendar month and he had elected not to subscribe during such leave, the amount of subscription payable shall be proportionate to the number of days spent on duty inclusive of leave, if any.

5A Realisation of Subscription

- 5A.1 When emoluments are drawn from the University, recovery of subscription on account of these emoluments and of the principal and interest of advances shall be made from the emoluments themselves.
- 5A.2 When emoluments are drawn from any other source the subscriber shall forward his dues monthly to the Finance Officer.

Provided that the case of a subscriber on deputation to a body corporate owned or controlled by Government, the subscriptions shall be recovered and forwarded to the Finance Officer by such body.

6. Interest

- 6.1 The University shall pay to the credit of the account of each subscriber, interest for each year at the same rate as may be determined by the Government of India for each year for paying to the credit of the subscriber under General Provident Fund (Central Civil Service) Rules, 1960.
- 6.2 Interest shall be credited with effect from the last day in each year in the following manner:
- 6.2.1 On the amount at the credit of a subscriber on the 31st of March of the preceding year less any sums withdrawn during the current year—interest for twelve months;
- 6.2.2 On sums withdrawn during the current year—Interest from the 1st of April of the current year up to the last day of the month preceding the month of withdrawal;
- 6.2.3 On all sums credited to the subscriber's account after the 31st March of the preceding year—Interest from the date of credit up to the 31st of March of the current year;
- 6.2.4 The total amount of interest shall be rounded to the nearest rupee (50 p. and above counting as the next higher rupee).
- 6.3 Provided that when the amount standing at the credit of a subscriber has become payable, interest thereon shall be credited under this sub-rule in respect only of the period from the beginning of the current year or from the date of credit as the case maybe, up to the date on which the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber becomes payable.

- 6.4 For the purpose of this rule, the date of credit shall in the case of recoveries from emoluments be deemed to be the first day of the month in which it is credited and in the case of emoluments forwarded by the subscriber shall be deemed to be the first day of the month of receipt if it is received by Finance Officer before the fifth day of the month and if received on or after the fifth date of that month, the first day of next succeeding month.
- 6.5 In all cases interest shall be paid in respect of balance at the credit of a subscriber up to the close of the month preceding that in which payment is made or up to the end of the sixth month after the month in which such amount becomes payable, whichever of these periods is less, provided that no interest shall be paid in respect of any period after the date on which the Finance Officer has intimated to the subscriber or his agent as the date on which he is prepared to make payments.

Note

Payment of interest on the balances in the fund beyond a period of six months up to the period of one year may be authorised by the Finance Officer after he has personally satisfied himself that the delay in payment was occasioned by circumstances beyond the control of the subscriber and in every such case the administrative delay involved shall be fully investigated and action required taken.

- 6.6 Where the emoluments for the month are drawn and disbursed on the last working day of the same month, the date of credit in the case of recovery of subscription be deemed to be the first day of succeeding month.
- 6.7 In case a subscriber is found to have overdrawn from the Fund an amount in excess of the amount standing to the credit on the date of the drawal the overdrawn amount shall be paid by him with interest thereon in one lump sum or in default be ordered to be recovered by deduction in one lump sum from the emoluments of the subscriber. If the total amount to be recovered is more than half of subscriber's emoluments recoveries shall be made in monthly instalments of moieties of his emoluments till the entire amount together with interest is recovered. The rate of interest to be charged on overdrawn amount would be 2.5 per cent over and above the normal rate on Provident Fund balance under Rule 6.1. Interest on overdrawn amount shall be credited to the revenue account of the University.

7. Advances from the Fund

- 7.1 The payment of advance from the Fund may be sanctioned by the Vice-Chancellor or other officer authorised by him to a subscriber from the amount of his subscription and interest thereon standing to his credit, subject to the following conditions:
- 7.1.1 No advance shall be granted unless the sanctioning authority is satisfied that the applicant's pecuniary circumstances justify it, and that it will be expended on the following object or objects and not otherwise:
- (i) to pay expenses incurred in connection with the illness of the subscriber and members of his family;

- (ii) to pay for the overseas passage for reasons of health or education of the subscriber and the members of his family;
- (iii) to meet the cost of higher education outside India for academic, technical, professional or vocational courses beyond the High School stage and for any medical engineering or other technical or specialised course in India beyond the High School stage, provided, that the course of study is for not less than three years.

Note

Advances under the sub-clause may be permitted once in every six months.

- (iv) to pay obligatory expenses on a scale appropriate to the applicant's status in connection with marriages, funerals or ceremonies which by his religion it is incumbent on him to incur;
- (v) to meet the cost of legal proceeding instituted by the applicant for vindicating his position in regard to any allegations made against him in respect of any act done or purporting to be done by him in the discharge of his official duty;

Provided that the advance under this sub-rule shall not be admissible to an applicant who institutes legal proceedings in any court of law either in respect of any matter unconnected with his official duty or against the University in respect of any condition of service or penalty imposed on him;

- (vi) to meet the cost of his defence where the applicant is prosecuted by the University in any court of law in respect of any alleged official misconduct on his part;
- (vii) to meet the cost of plot or construction of a house or flat for his residence or to make any payment towards the allotment of plot or flat to the Delhi Development Authority or a State Housing Board or a House Building Co-operative Society;
- (viii) to meet the cost of travel abroad of the applicant when permitted by the Board of Management to attend academic conferences, symposia or for academic/technical work.

Note

The Board of Management may, in special circumstances, sanction the payment to any subscriber of the advance if the Board is satisfied that the subscriber concerned requires the advance for reasons other than those mentioned in Rule 7.1.1.

7.1.2 An advance shall not exceed the following ceiling limits:

- | | | |
|-----|---|--------------------------------------|
| (i) | when sanction for any of the objects
mentioned in clause (i) to (viii)
of Rule 7.1.1 | 3 months pay of the subscriber |

Provided, however, that in no case shall the amount of advance exceed 50 per cent of the amount of the member's subscription and interest thereon standing to the credit of the subscriber in the Fund.

- 7.1.3(i) An advance shall not, except for special reasons to be recorded in writing, be granted to any subscriber in excess of the limit laid down in Rule 7.1.2 herein or until repayment of the last instalment of any previous advance.
- (ii) When an advance is sanctioned under this Rule before repayment of last instalment of any previous advance is completed, the balance of any previous advance not recovered shall be added to the advance so sanctioned and the instalments for recovery shall be fixed with reference to the consolidated amount.

Note

The advance under this clause will be sanctioned by Vice-Chancellor or any Officer to whom powers in this regard had been delegated.

7.1.4 The sanctioning officer shall record in writing his reasons for granting the advance: Provided that if the reason is of confidential nature, it may be communicated to the Finance Officer personally and/or confidentially.

7.1.5 The amount of advance shall be recovered in not more than twenty four equal monthly instalments, if the advance was sanctioned for any of the objects mentioned in clauses (i) to (viii) of Rule 7.1.1. In special cases where the amount of the advance exceeds three months' pay of the subscriber the sanctioning authority may fix such number of instalments to be more than 24 but in no case more than 36. Each instalment shall be a number of whole rupees, the amount of advance being raised or reduced, if necessary, to admit of the fixation of such instalments. A subscriber may, at his option, repay in a smaller number of instalments than agreed upon at the time of grant of advance or in a lump sum.

7.1.6 Recovery shall be made from the emoluments of a subscriber and shall commence on the first occasion after the advance is made, on which the subscriber draws emoluments for a full month.

7.1.7 Recoveries made under this rule shall be credited, as they are made, to the subscriber's account in the Fund.

7.2 Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, if the sanctioning authority is satisfied that money withdrawn as an advance from the Fund under Rule 7.1 has been utilised for a purpose other than that for which sanction was given to the drawal of the money, the amount in question shall be repaid by the subscriber to the Fund or in default be ordered to be recovered by deduction in one sum from the emoluments of the subscriber. If the total amount to be repaid be more than half the subscriber's emoluments, the recoveries shall be made in monthly instalments of moieties of his emoluments till the entire amount recoverable be repaid.

Note

The term 'emoluments' as used in this rule does not include subsistence allowance, if any, granted in cases of suspension of an employee pending an enquiry into his alleged misconduct.

8. Withdrawal from the Fund

8.1 Subject to the conditions specified herein, withdrawals from the Fund may be sanctioned by the Vice-Chancellor or any officer to whom powers in this regard had been delegated at any time.

(A) After the completion of twenty years of service (including broken periods of service, if any) of a subscriber or within ten years before the date of his retirement on superannuation, whichever is earlier, from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, for one or more of the following purposes:

(a) Meeting the cost of higher education, including where necessary, the travelling expenses of the subscriber or any child of the subscriber in the following cases, namely:

(i) for education outside India for academic, technical, professional or vocational course beyond the High School stage; and

(ii) for any medical, engineering or other technical or specialised course in India beyond the High School stage.

(b) Meeting the expenditure in connection with the betrothal/marriage of the subscriber or his sons or daughters, and any other female relations actually dependent on him.

(c) Meeting the expenses in connection with the illness, including where necessary, the travelling expenses, of the subscriber and members of his family or any person actually dependent on him.

(B) After the completion of ten years of service (including broken periods of service, if any) of a subscriber or within ten years before the date of his retirement on superannuation, whichever is earlier, from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund for one or more of the following purposes, namely -

(a) Building or acquiring a suitable house or ready-built flat for his residence including the cost of the site.

(b) Repaying an outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken for building or acquiring a suitable house or ready-built flat for his residence.

(c) Purchasing a house-site for building a house thereon for his residence or repaying any outstanding amount on account of loan expressly taken for this purpose.

(d) Reconstructing or making additions or alterations to a house already owned or acquired by a subscriber.

(e) Renovating, additions or alterations or upkeep of an ancestral house at a place other than the place of duty or to a house built with the assistance of loan from University at a place other than the place of duty.

(f) Constructing a house on a site purchased under clause (c).

- (C) Acquiring a farm land or business premises or both within six months before the date of the subscriber's retirement.
- (D) Once during the course of a financial year an amount equivalent to one year's subscription paid for by the subscriber towards Group Insurance Scheme for the University employees on self financing and contributory basis, if any.

Note 1

A subscriber who has availed himself of an advance for house building purpose from the University source, shall be eligible for the grant of final withdrawal under clauses (a), (c), (d) and (f) of clause (B) for the purposes specified therein and also for the purpose of repayment of any loan taken from the University subject to the limit specified in Rule 8.2.

If a subscriber has an ancestral house or built a house at a place other than the place of his duty with the assistance of loan taken from the University he shall be eligible for the grant of final withdrawal under clauses (a), (c) and (f) of clause (B) for purchase of a house- site or for construction of another house or for acquiring a ready-built flat at the place of his duty.

Note 2

Withdrawal under clauses (a), (d), (e) or (f) of clause (B) shall be sanctioned only after a subscriber has submitted a plan of the house to be constructed or of the additions or alterations to be made duly approved by the local municipal body of the area where the site or house is situated and only in cases where the plan is actually got to be approved.

Note 3

The amount of withdrawal sanctioned under sub-clause (b) of clause (B) shall not exceed 3/4th of the balance on date of application together with the amount of previous withdrawal under clause (d) reduced by the amount of previous withdrawal. The formula to be followed is: 3/4 of balance (as on date plus amount of previous withdrawal(s) for the house in question) minus the amount of the previous withdrawal(s).

Note 4

Withdrawal under sub-clauses (a) or (d) of clause (B) shall also be allowed where the house-site or house is in the name of wife/husband provided she/he is the first nominee to receive Provident Fund money in the nomination made by the subscriber.

Note 5

Only one withdrawal shall be allowed for the same purpose under Rule 8.1. But marriage/ education of different children or illness on different occasions shall not be treated as the same purpose. Second or subsequent withdrawal under clauses (a) or (f) of clause (B) or completion of the same house shall be allowed up to the limit laid down under Note 3.

Note 6

A withdrawal under Rule 8.1 shall not be sanctioned if an advance under Rule 7 is being sanctioned for the same purpose and at the same time.

8.2 Conditions for Withdrawal

8.2.1 Any sum withdrawn by a subscriber at any one time for one or more of the purposes specified in Rule 8.1 from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall not ordinarily exceed one-half of such amount or six months pay of the subscriber, whichever is less. The Vice-Chancellor or sanctioning officer may, however, sanction the withdrawal of an amount in excess of these limits up to three-fourths of the balance at his credit in the Fund, having due regard to (i) the object for which the withdrawal is being made, (ii) the status of the subscriber, and (iii) the amount to his credit in the Fund.

8.2.2 Provided in no case the maximum amount of withdrawal for purposes specified in clause B of sub-rule 8.1 shall exceed the maximum limit prescribed from time to time for the grant of advances for house building purposes.

8.2.3 In the case of a subscriber who has availed himself of an advance under the Scheme of House Building Advance of the University, for the purpose of house building the sum withdrawn under this sub-rule together with the advance taken under the aforesaid scheme of the University shall not exceed the maximum prescribed for the grant of advance for house building purposes.

8.3 A subscriber who has been permitted to withdraw money from the Fund under this rule, shall satisfy the Vice-Chancellor or sanctioning officer within a reasonable period as may be specified by him that the money has been utilised for the purpose for which it was withdrawn and if he fails to do so, the whole of sums so withdrawn or so much thereof as has been not applied for the purpose for which it was withdrawn shall forthwith be repaid in one lump sum and in default of such payment it shall be ordered by the Vice-Chancellor or sanctioning officer to be recovered from his emoluments either in a lump sum or in such number of monthly instalments as may be determined by the Board of Management.

8.4 A subscriber who has been permitted under sub-clause (a), sub-clause (b) or sub-clause (c) of clause B of sub-rule (1) of this rule to withdraw money from the amount of subscription together with interest thereon standing to his credit in the Fund, shall not part with the possession of the house so built or acquired or house-site so purchased by way of sale, mortgage (other than mortgage to the Vice-Chancellor of the University) or gift, without the previous permission of the Vice-Chancellor. He shall also not part with the possession of such house or house-site by way of exchange or lease for a term exceeding three years, without the previous permission of the sanctioning officer. The subscriber shall submit a declaration not later than the 31st day of December, of every year to the effect that the house or as the case may be, the house-site continues to be in his possession and shall, if so required produce before the sanctioning officer on or before the date specified by that officer in that behalf the original sale deed and other documents on which his title to the property is based.

- 8.5 If at anytime before retirement, he parts with the possession of the house or house-site without obtaining the previous permission of the Vice-Chancellor of the University or sanctioning officer as the case may be, the sum withdrawn by him shall forthwith be repaid in one lump sum by the subscriber to the Fund and in default of such repayment it shall be ordered by the sanctioning authority to be recovered from his emoluments either in a lump sum or in such number of monthly instalments as maybe determined by the Vice-Chancellor or sanctioning officer. Continuous service rendered in another Central/State University. State/Central Government or autonomous body under Central Government will be taken into account while determining the period of service for the purpose of this rule.
- 8.6 A subscriber who has already drawn or may draw in future an advance under Rule 7 for any of the purposes specified in sub-rule 8.1 may convert at his discretion by written request to the sanctioning officer, the balance outstanding into a final withdrawal on his satisfying the conditions laid down in Rules 8.1 and 8.2.

9. Final Withdrawals of Accumulations in the Fund

- 9.1 When a subscriber quits the service of the University, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall become payable to him.
- 9.1.1 Provided that a subscriber who has been dismissed from the service of the University and is subsequently reinstated in service, shall if required to do so repay any amount paid to him from the Fund in pursuance of this rule with interest thereon at the rate provided in these rules in the manner provided. The amount so repaid shall be credited to his account in the Fund.

Explanation

A subscriber who is granted refused leave shall be deemed to have quit the service from the date of compulsory retirement or on the expiry of an extension of service.

10. Retirement of a Subscriber

- 10.1 When a subscriber (a) has proceeded on leave preparatory to retirement or (b) while on leave has been permitted to retire or has been declared by the Consulting Medical Officer of the University or by a competent medical authority that may be prescribed by the Board of Management in this behalf to be unfit for further service, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund shall, upon an application made by him in that behalf to the Finance Officer, becomes payable to the subscriber.
- 10.1.1 Provided that the subscriber, if he returns to duty shall, if required to do so, repay to the Fund for credit to his account the whole or part of any amount paid to him from the Fund in pursuance of this rule with interest thereon, at the rate provided, by instalments or otherwise by recovery from his emoluments or otherwise as the Vice-Chancellor or the sanctioning officer may direct.

11. Procedure on the Death of a Subscriber

11.1 On the death of a subscriber before the amount standing to his credit has become payable or where the amount has become payable before payment has been made:

11.1.1 When a subscriber leaves a family:

- (a) if a nomination made by a subscriber in accordance with the provisions of Rule I . I or of the corresponding rule heretofore in force in favour of a member or members of his family subsists the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.
- (b) if no such nomination in favour of a member or members of the family of the subscriber subsists or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his credit in the Fund, the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate, as the case may be. shall, notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any person or persons other than a member or members of his family. become payable to the members of his family in equal shares.

Provided that no share shall be payable to:

- (i) sons who have attained majority;
- (ii) sons of a deceased son who have attained majority;
- (iii) married daughters whose husbands are alive;
- (iv) married daughters of a deceased son whose husbands are alive.

if there is any member of the family other than those specified in clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv). Provided further that the widow or widows and the child or children of a deceased son shall receive between them in equal parts only the share which that son would have received if he had survived the subscriber and had been exempted from the provision of clause (i) of the first proviso.

11.1.2 When the subscriber leaves no family—if a nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of Rule 1.1 or of the corresponding rule heretofore in force in favour of any person or persons subsists, the amount standing to his credit in the Fund or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee or nominees in the proportion specified in the nomination.

12. Deposit Linked Insurance Scheme

12.1 On the death of a subscriber in service, the person(s) entitled to receive the amount standing to the credit of the subscriber shall be paid by the Finance Officer an additional amount equal to the average balance in the account of the deceased in the Fund during the three years immediately preceding the death of the employee subject to the fulfilment of the following conditions:

- (a) The balance representing subscription with interest thereon in the account of the employee should not have fallen below the following limits at any time during the three years preceding the date of death:
 - (i) Teachers, Asstt. Registrars and officials of equivalent scale and above Rs. 25,000/-
 - (ii) Section officers and other officials in equivalent scale Rs. 15,000/-
 - (iii) Employees other than those mentioned in (i) and (ii) Rs. 10,000/-
 - (iv) Lower subordinate staff in scale the maximum of which is Rs. 1,151/- and below Rs. 6,000/-
- (b) The additional amount payable under this rule shall not exceed Rs. 60,000/-.
- (c) The benefit would be admissible only if the subscriber has put in at least five years service at the time of death.

13. Statement of Accounts

13.1 As soon as possible after the 31st of March of each year, the Finance Officer shall send to each subscriber a statement of his account in the Fund, showing the opening balance on the 1st of April of the year, the total amount credited and debited during the year, the total amount of interest credited as on the 31st of March of the year and the closing balance on that date. The Finance Officer shall attach to the statement of account an enquiry whether the subscriber:

- (a) desires to make any alteration in any nomination made by the subscriber;
- (b) has acquired a family (in cases where the subscriber has made no nomination in favour of his family under the rules).

13.2 Subscribers should satisfy themselves as to the correctness of the annual statement and errors should be brought to the notice of the Finance Officer within six months from the date of receipt of the statement.

13.3 The Finance Officer shall, if required by a subscriber, once, but not more than once in a year, inform the subscriber of the total amount standing to his credit in the Fund at the end of the last month for which his account has been written up.

14. Investment of Fund

14.1 All sums paid into the Fund under the rules shall be credited in the books of the University to an account named "General Provident Fund Account of the University..." A deposit account shall be opened in such Scheduled Bank as the University may decide upon from time to time to be operated in such manner as the Board of Management may direct. The balance of the Fund, after reserving suitable amounts for current needs, shall be invested in the National Savings Certificates and/or other investment covered by Section 20 of the Indian Trust Act of 1882 as soon as possible after monthly accounts are closed. The interest received from the above investments shall be credited as receipts in the revenue account of the University.

14.2 Sums of which payment has not been taken within six months after they become payable under these rules shall be transferred to “Deposits” at the end of the year and treated under the ordinary rules relating to deposits.

15. Relaxation of the Provisions of the Rules in Individual Case

When the Board of Management is satisfied that the operation of any of these rules causes or is likely to cause undue hardship to a subscriber the Board may, notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, deal with the case of such subscriber in such manner as may appear to be just and equitable.

16. While applying the rules to the employees of the University, the clarifications or ruling given by Government of India relating to GPF (Central Services) Rules 1960 will be taken into consideration.

17. Forms for (a) Application for advances/part final withdrawal/Final payment of balances in the Provident Fund (b) Sanctions for withdrawals (c) Conversion of an advance into a final withdrawal (d) General Index Register (e) Provident Fund Ledger Folio (f) Broad sheet of GPF etc. shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Board of Management.

SECTION II

PENSION

- 18.1 Every person governed by the provisions of this Section of Appendix 'A' shall be entitled to a pension according to the rules provided hereinafter.
- 18.2 Subject to such conditions as may be applicable to the categories of pension set out below, no person shall be eligible for pension unless he has put in a minimum of ten years qualifying service in the University; provided that the minimum age after which service counts for pension shall be eighteen years. In case the qualifying service falls below ten years, gratuity shall be admissible as calculated at a uniform rate of half month's emoluments for every completed six monthly period of service. Temporary employees who retired on superannuation or permanently incapacitated for further service by the appropriate medical authority after rendering ten years of service shall be eligible for pension on the same scale as admissible to those in permanent employment
- 19.1 Subject to the minimum qualifying service, an employee shall be eligible for one or other of the following classes of pensions, depending upon the circumstances of the cases:
- (a) Compensation Pension: If an employee is discharged owing to the abolition of the permanent post and it is not possible to provide him with alternate employment or when a lower post is offered but not accepted by him, he shall be granted a compensation pension on the scale prescribed in Rule 20 below.
 - (b) Invalid Pension: An invalid pension shall be granted to an employee, on retirement from the service of the University for permanent physical or mental disability incapacitating him for further service, if certified by the competent Medical Authority as may be prescribed by the Board of Management, on the scale prescribed in Rule 20 below.

In respect of an employee who retires on invalid pension, the amount of invalid pension shall not be less than the amount of the family pension under sub Rule 32.9 of Family Pension of this Appendix.
 - (c) Superannuation Pension: A Superannuation pension shall be granted to an employee who is retired from service on his attaining the age of retirement.
 - (d) Retiring Pension: A retiring pension shall be granted to an employee who is permitted to retire after completing twenty years of qualifying service or retired prematurely in advance of the age of superannuation.

Provided that in the event of retirement after twenty years of qualifying service but before the completion of the age of superannuation the employee concerned shall give in this behalf a notice in writing to the Registrar at least three months before the date on which he wishes to retire.
- 20.1 An employee eligible for pension under any of the categories mentioned above shall be granted on retirement, after completing qualifying service of not less than thirty years monthly pension calculated at 50 per cent of the average emoluments subject to a minimum of Rs. 1275/- w.e.f. 1.1.96 and Rs. 1913/-

w.e.f. 1.4.04 (i.e. Basic Pay + D.P. @ 50% of basic pay), subject to maximum of Rs. 30,000/- p.m. In the case of employees who, at the time of retirement, have rendered qualifying service of 10 years or more but less than 33 years the amount of their pension will be such proportion of the maximum admissible pension as the qualifying service rendered by them bears to the maximum qualifying service of 33 years. The revised provisions shall apply to the employees who retire on or after 1-1-96.

20.2 In the case of voluntary retirement after the completion of twenty years, weightage up to five years will be added to the qualifying service of the official provided that

- (a) the total qualifying service including the weightage does not exceed 33 years;
- (b) the period does not go beyond the date of normal superannuation of the official;
- (c) the weightage of service shall not entitle the employee to any notional fixation of pay for the purposes of calculating pension and gratuity.

This sub-rule shall not apply to an employee who retires from the University service for being absorbed permanently in autonomous body or public sector undertaking.

21. Commutation of Pension

An employee shall, subject to the conditions specified below, be allowed to commute for lumpsum payment of a fraction not exceeding 40% of monthly pension granted to him.

- (i) No commutation shall be sanctioned without the medical certificate of competent medical authority as may be prescribed by the Board, except in the cases of employees retiring on compensation pension, superannuation or retiring pension (including those on absorption in or under a Corporation or autonomous body and elect to receive monthly pension) provided the application for commutation is made within a year of the date of retirement
- (ii) The lump sum payable on commutation shall be calculated in accordance with the table of value prescribed by Government of India for its employees and applicable to the applicant on the date on which the commutation becomes absolute.
- (iii) The commutation of pension shall become absolute on the date of receipt of application, in the prescribed form by the Registrar or on the date following the date of retirement, whichever is later. In the case of commutation after medical examination the date will be the date on which the medical officer signs the medical certificate.
- (iv) The reduction in the amount of pension on account of commutation shall be operative from the date of receipt of the amount of commuted value of pension, or at the end of three months after issue of authority by the Finance Officer for the payment of commuted value of pension, whichever is later.

22. Such University pensioners, who will complete 15 years from their respective dates of retirement, will have their commuted portion of pension restored.
23. University employees who get themselves absorbed under Central Public Sector Undertakings/autonomous bodies and have received/or opt to receive commuted value of 40% (Maximum) of pension as well as terminal benefits equal to the commuted value of balance amount of pension left after commuting 40% of pension are not entitled to any benefit under Rule 22 as they cease to be University pensioners.
24. Each pensioner, who is eligible as in Rule 22 above, is required to apply in the prescribed form, duly completed, to the Finance Officer of the University who will restore the commuted portion of pension if the commuted amount has been mentioned in the Pension Payment Order and will also pay the arrears, if any.

SECTION III

GRATUITY

- 25.1 An employee who has completed five years of qualifying service in the University and has become eligible for service gratuity or pension under sub-rules 18.1 and 18.2 as well as temporary employee who retired on superannuation or on invalidation after rendering 10 years of service and had become eligible for pension, shall on his retirement, be granted in addition Retirement gratuity in accordance with the scale indicated in Rule 26.  - (dd) brothers below the age of eighteen years including step brothers;
 - (ee) unmarried sisters and widowed sisters including step sisters;
 - (ff) married daughters; and
 - (gg) children of pre-deceased son.

Note 1

The right of a female member of the family, or that of a brother, of an employee who dies while in service or after retirement, to receive the share of gratuity shall not be affected if the female member marries or re-marries or the brother attains the age of eighteen years, after the death of the employee and before receiving her or his share of the gratuity.

Note 2

Where gratuity is granted under this rule to a minor member of the family of the deceased employee, it shall be payable to the guardian on behalf of the minor.

Note 3

Where an employee dies while in service, or after retirement without receiving the amount of gratuity, and-

- (a) leaves behind no family; or
- (b) has made no nomination; or
- (c) the nomination made by him does not subsist;

the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity payable to him under this rule shall lapse to the University.

- 26. The amount of Retirement gratuity shall be one fourth of the emoluments of an employee for each completed six monthly period of qualifying service subject to a maximum of 16 1/2 times the emoluments.

Provided that in no case it shall exceed Rs. 3,50,000/- (w.e.f. 1-1-1996).

Provided further that the amount of Retirement gratuity, finally calculated should be rounded off to the next higher rupee.

27. Residuary Gratuity

If an employee who has become eligible for a pension or gratuity dies within a period of five years after he retires from the service of the University, including compulsory retirement as a penalty and the sums actually received by him at the time of death on account of such pension together with the gratuity granted under the above provisions and the commuted value of any portion of the pension commuted by him are less than the amount equal to twelve times the emoluments, a gratuity to the deficiency shall be granted to the person or persons nominated by him.

28. Death Gratuity

In the event of death in harness, the Death Gratuity shall be admissible at the following rates:

Length of Service	Rate of Gratuity
1. less than one year	2 times of emoluments
2. one year or more but less than five years	6 times of emoluments
3. five years or more but less than 20 years	12 times of emoluments
4. 20 years or more	Half the emoluments for every completed six months period of qualifying service subject to maximum of 33 times emoluments provided that the amount of Death Gratuity shall in no case exceed Three lakh and Fifty Thousand rupees.

29. The emoluments for the purpose of Retirement gratuity under Rule 26 to 28 shall be reckoned in accordance with sub-clause (b) of clause 3 of Statute 23 provided that if the emoluments of an employee has been reduced during the last ten months of his service otherwise than as a penalty, average emoluments as referred to in sub-clause (c) of clause 3 of Statute 23 shall be treated as emoluments.
30. Temporary Employees with Less than Ten Years of Service

30.1 Terminal Gratuity

A temporary employee, who retire on superannuation is declared invalid for further service before completion of 10 years of service or is discharged on account of retrenchment, will be eligible for a gratuity on the same scale and rates as are applicable to permanent university staff. This is applicable w.e.f. 1-1-1996.

Provided that the service is continuous and Satisfactory.

Provided that where the service rendered by the employee is not held to be satisfactory, by the authority competent to appoint and such authority may, by order and for reasons to be mentioned therein, make such reduction in the amount of gratuity as it may consider proper.

Provided also that the amount of terminal gratuity payable under this sub-rule shall not, be less than the amount which the employee would have got as a matching University's Contribution to Provident Fund, if he were the member of Contributory Provident Fund Scheme from the date of his continuous temporary service, subject to the condition that the matching contributions shall not exceed 10 per cent of his pay.

30.2 Provided further, in the case of compulsory retirement as a disciplinary measure, the rate of gratuity payable in his case shall not be less than two thirds of pay, in no case exceeding the rate specified for corresponding continuous service.

30.3 Death Gratuity

The family of a temporary employee, (with less than 10 years service) who dies while in service will be eligible for a death gratuity on the same scale and subject to the conditions as laid down in Rule 28.

No gratuity shall be admissible under this rule to an employee who is re-employed after retirement on superannuation or retiring pension.

Note

For the purpose of this rule

(a) 'Pay' will mean basic pay plus DP. It will not include special pay, personal pay and other emoluments classed as pay. In case the employee concerned was on/leave with or without allowances, pay for this purpose will be the pay which he would have drawn had he not proceeded on such leave.

SECTION IV

FAMILY PENSION

- 31) The Family Pension Scheme as detailed below will be applicable to regular employees in pensionable service—temporary or permanent.
- 32) It will be administered as below:

For those who opt for G.P.F.-cum-Pension-cum-Gratuity Scheme, the-following provisions will apply.

32.1 The family pension, the amount of which shall be determined in accordance with the Table below sub-rule 32.9 will be admissible to the family of the deceased in case of death of the employee while in service, or after retirement from service and on date of death, the retired officer was in receipt of pension. In case of death while in service, the employee should have completed a minimum period of one year of continuous service or before completion of one year of continuous service, the deceased employee was medically examined and found fit by the appropriate medical authority immediately prior to his appointment.

Note

Continuous service mean service rendered in a temporary or permanent capacity in a pensionable service and does not include (1) period of suspension if any, and (2) period of service rendered before attaining the age of 18 years.

32.2 'Family' for purposes of this scheme will include the following relatives of the employee:

- (a) wife in the case of male officer.
- (b) husband in the case of female officer;
- (c) son who has not attained the age of 25 years;
- (d) unmarried daughter who has not attained the age of 25 years.

Note

- (i) (c) and (d) will include children adopted legally before retirement but not include son or daughter born after retirement.
- (ii) Marriage after retirement will not be recognised for the purpose of the scheme.

32.3 The pension will be admissible:

- (a) In the case of widow/widower up to the date of death or remarriage, whichever is earlier;
- (b) In the case of a minor son until he attains the age of 25 years;
- (c) In the case of an unmarried/widowed/divorcee and unmarried son/ daughter until she attains the age of 25 years or marriage/remarriage whichever is earlier or starts earning more than 2550/- per month.

Provided that if the son or daughter of an employee is suffering from any disorder or disability of mind or is physically crippled or disabled so as to render him or her-unable to earn a living even after attaining the age of 25 years in the case of son and 30 years in the case of daughter, the family pension shall be payable to such son or daughter for life subject to the following conditions, namely:

- (i) If such son or daughter is one among two or more children of the employee, the family pension shall be initially payable to the minor children in the order set out in item (c) of sub-rule 32.4 of this rule until the last minor child attains the age of 25 or 30, as the case may be, and thereafter the family pension shall be resumed in favour of the son or daughter suffering from disorder or disability of mind or who is physically crippled or disabled and shall be payable to him/her for life;
- (ii) If there are more than one such son or daughter suffering from disorder or disability of mind who are physically crippled or disabled, the family pension shall be paid in the following order, namely:
 - (a) firstly, to the son, and if there are more than one son, the younger of them will get the family pension only after the life time of the elder;
 - (b) secondly, to the daughter, and if there are more than one daughter, the younger of them will get the family pension only after the life time of the elder.
- (iii) the family pension shall be paid to such son or daughter through the guardian as if he or she were a minor;
- (iv) before allowing the family pension for life to any such son or daughter, the - sanctioning authority shall satisfy that the handicap is of such a nature as to prevent him or her from earning his or her livelihood and the same shall be evidenced by a certificate obtained from a medical officer not below the rank of Civil Surgeon setting out, as far as possible, the exact mental or physical condition of the child;
- (v) the person receiving the family pension as guardian of such son or daughter shall produce (i) every three years a certificate from a medical officer not below the rank of Civil Surgeon to the effect that he or she continues to suffer from disorder or disability of mind or continue to be physically crippled or disabled, (ii) every month a certificate (a) that the beneficiary has not started his/her livelihood (b) in case of daughter that she has not yet married, as the case may be.

Note

- (1) Where a deceased employee is survived by more than one widow, the pension will be paid to them in equal shares. On the death or re-marriage of widow, her share of pension will become payable to her eligible minor child. If at the time of her death/re-marriage a widow leaves no eligible minor child, the payment of her share of pension will cease.
- (2) Where the deceased employee is survived by a widow but has left behind an eligible minor child from another wife, the eligible minor child will be paid the share of the pension which the mother would have received if she had been alive at the time of the death of the employee.

- 32.4 (a) Except as provided in notes (1) and (2) below sub-rule 32.3 the family pension shall not be payable to more than one member of the family at the same time.
- (b) If a deceased employee or pensioner leaves behind a widow or widower the family pension shall become payable to the widow or widower, failing which to the eligible child.
- (c) If sons and unmarried daughters are alive, unmarried daughters shall not be eligible for family pension unless the sons attain the age of eighteen years and thereby become ineligible for the grant of family pension.
- 32.5 In the event of re-marriage or death of widow/widower the pension will be granted to the minor children through their natural guardian. In disputed cases, however, payments will be made through a legal guardian.
- 32.6 When both husband and wife are employees and one of them dies while in service, or after retirement, the family pension in respect of the deceased is payable to the surviving husband/wife and in the event of the death of husband or wife the children of the deceased couple will be granted two family pensions in respect of the deceased parents subject to the limits specified below

From 1.1.1996, family pension shall be 30% of basic pay in all cases, subject to a minimum of Rs. 1275/- (now Rs. 1913/-) p.m. and a maximum of Rs. 30,000/- (now Rs. 45,000/-).

- 32.7 Family pension admissible under these rules shall not be granted to a person who is in receipt of family pension or is eligible therefor, under any other rules of the Central or a State Government and/or public sector undertaking/ autonomous body/local Fund under the Central or State Government.
- 32.8 The amount of family pension shall be fixed at monthly rates and be expressed in whole rupees and where the family pension contains a fraction of a rupee it shall be rounded off to the next higher rupee, provided in no case a family pension in excess of the maximum prescribed shall be allowed.
- 32.9 (i) In the event of the death of an employee while in service after having rendered not less than seven years continuous service, the rate of family pension payable to the family shall be equal to 50% of the pay last drawn or twice the family pension admissible [under sub-clause (a)] whichever is less and the amount so admissible shall be payable from the date of death of the employee, for a period of seven years or up to the date on which he would attain the age of 67 years had he survived whichever period is less.
- (ii) In the event of the death after retirement the family pension at enhanced rates shall be payable up to the date on which the employee would have attained the age 67 years had he survived, or for seven years whichever period is earlier but in no case the-amount of family pension shall exceed the pension sanctioned to the employee at the time of retirement. However, in cases where the amount of family pension admissible [as per the sub-clause (a) above] exceeds the pension sanctioned at the time of the retirement, the amount of family pension sanctioned under this sub-clause shall not be less than that amount. The pension sanctioned at the time of retirement shall be the pension inclusive of any portion which may have been commuted before death. The enhanced family shall not be less than normal family pension.

Note

‘Pay’ for the purposes of sub-rule 32.9 shall mean (i) the emoluments as defined in Statute 23 or (ii) the average emoluments as defined in Statute 23 if the emoluments of the deceased employee have been reduced during the last ten months of his service otherwise than as penalty.

32.10 All employees entitled to the benefit of family pension shall be required to furnish details of their ‘family’ as defined in sub-rule 32.2 above i.e. the date of birth of each member with his/her relationship with employee, in Form III. This statement shall be countersigned by the Registrar and pasted in the service record of the employee. The employee will thereafter be required to keep the statement up to date. Addition and alterations in this statement will be made by the Registrar from time to time on receipt of information from the employee concerned.

32.11 In cases where death occurs while in service the Registrar on receiving information of death of an employee while in service shall send a letter as prescribed in Form IV to the family of the deceased and ask for necessary documents mentioned therein. On receiving the documents the Registrar shall take necessary action to sanction the pension to the eligible member of the family.

SECTION V

EXTRAORDINARY PENSION

- 33.1 The grant of disability pension, compensation in lieu of disability pension, consolidated extraordinary family pension may be sanctioned by the Board of Management on the advice of an ad hoc committee when an employee sustains injury or dies as a result of an injury or is killed. In making the award the Board of Management will take into consideration the degree of the fault or contributory negligence on the part of an employee who sustains injury or dies as a result of an injury or is killed.
- 33.2 The said ad hoc committee shall consist of five members, four appointed by the Board of Management from amongst themselves and fifth member will be the representative from the Ministry of Finance, Government of India.
- 33.3 The amount payable will be at the same rates and on the same conditions as laid down by Government of India CCS (Extraordinary Pension) Rules as amended from time to time.
- 33.4 When a claim for any disability pension or extraordinary family pension arises it should be placed before the Board of Management through Registrar with the following documents:
- (a) A full statement of circumstances in which the injury was received, the disease was contracted or the death occurred;
 - (b) The application for disability pension or extraordinary family pension as the case may be in the form prescribed;
 - (c) In the case of injured member of staff a medical report or in the case of diseased member of staff a medical report in the form prescribed. In the case of deceased member of the staff a medical report as to the death or reliable evidence as to the actual occurrence of the death if the member of the staff lost his life in such circumstances that a medical report cannot be Secured.

8.7 If a subscriber is on duty out of India the emoluments which he would have drawn had he been on duty in India shall, for the purpose of this rule be deemed to be emoluments drawn on duty.

Amendment to 8.2 of Appendix B of Statute 23 regarding CPF-cum-Gratuity Scheme is made by the Board of Management at its meeting held on 01.02.1993. The approval of the Visitor is received vide Letter No. F-5-3/93-U1 Desk dt. 3/8 Sept 1993.

The amendment to Rule 8.2 was made by the Board of Management at its meeting held on 17.8.90 and approved by the Visitor vide letter No. F.5.61/90/U.1 (Desk) dated 14.12.90.

9. Interest

The University shall pay to the credit of the account of each subscriber interest as provided in Rule 6 of Section 1 of Appendix 'A' to this Statute.

10. Advances From the Fund

Advances from the Fund and recovery thereof shall be governed as provided in Rule 7 of Section I of Appendix 'A' to this Statute.

11. Withdrawal From the Fund

Withdrawal from the Fund may be sanctioned by the Vice-Chancellor or any other officer to whom the power has been delegated in this regard subject to the conditions specified, in Rule 8 of Section I of Appendix 'A' to this Statute.

12. Conversion of an Advance into a Withdrawal

A subscriber who has already drawn or may draw in future an advance under Rule 10 for any of the purposes specified in sub-clause (a), sub-clause (b) or sub-clause (c) of clause B of Rule 8.1 of Section I of Appendix 'A' to this Statute, may convert, at his discretion by written request addressed to the Vice-Chancellor or sanctioning officer the balance outstanding against it into a final withdrawal on his satisfying the condition laid down in Rule 11.

13. Final Withdrawal of Accumulations in the Fund

13.1 The final payment of the amount standing to the credit of the subscriber shall become payable in the circumstances stated in Rules 9, 10 and 11 of Section I of Appendix 'A' to the Statute.

13.2 When a subscriber other than the one who is appointed on contract or one who has retired from service and is subsequently re-employed is transferred without any break to the service under a body corporate owned or controlled by Government or an autonomous organisation registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1960, the amount of subscriptions and the Government contribution together with interest thereon shall be transferred to his new Provident Fund Account, if the subscriber so desires and the concerned organisation agrees to such transfer.

The transfer shall include cases of resignation from service in order to take up appointment under a body corporate owned or controlled by Government or an autonomous organisation registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1960 without any break and with proper permission of this University. Time taken to join the new post shall not be treated as a break in service if it does not exceed the joining time admissible.

14. Deductions

Subject to the condition that no deduction may be made which reduces the credit by more than the amount of any contribution by the University with interest thereon credited under Rules 8 and 9 before the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund is paid out of the Fund, the Vice-Chancellor may direct the deduction therefrom and payment to the University of-

- (a) all amounts representing such contribution and interest if the subscriber is dismissed from service due to misconduct, insolvency or inefficiency.

Provided that where the Vice-Chancellor is satisfied that such deduction would cause exceptional hardship to the subscriber, he may by order, exempt from such deduction and amount not exceeding two-third of the amount of such contribution and interest which would have been payable to the subscriber, if he had retired on medical grounds; provided further that if any such order of dismissal is subsequently cancelled the amount so deducted shall on his reinstatement in the service be replaced to his credit in the Fund;

- (b) All amounts representing such contribution and interest if the subscriber within five years of the commencement of his service as such, resigns from the service or ceases to be an employee under University otherwise than by reason of death, superannuation or declaration by a competent medical authority that he is unfit for further service, or the abolition of the post or the reduction of establishment;
- (c) Any amount due from the subscriber under liability incurred by the subscriber to the University.

Note

- (a) For the purpose of this rule the period of five years shall be reckoned from the commencement of the subscriber's continuous service under the University.
- (b) Resignation from service with proper permission to take up appointment in another University without break in service will not constitute resignation of service for the purpose of this rule.

15. Deposit Linked insurance Scheme

The payment under deposit linked insurance scheme shall be governed as provided in Rule 12 of Section 1 of Appendix 'A' to this Statute.

16. Manner of Payment of Amount in the Fund

16.1 When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund, or the balance thereof after any deduction under Rule 14 becomes payable, it shall be duty of that Finance Officer after satisfying himself, when no such deduction has been directed under that rule, that no deduction is to be made to make payment on receipt of a written application as provided in sub-rule 16.3.

16.2 If the person to whom, under these rules, any amount is to be paid is a lunatic for whose estate a manager has been appointed in this behalf under the Indian Lunacy Act, IV of 1912, the payment will be made to such manager, and not to the lunatic.

Provided that where no manager has been appointed and the person to whom the sum is payable is certified by a Magistrate to be a lunatic, the payment shall, under the orders of the Collector, be made in terms of sub-section (1) of Section 95 of the Indian Lunacy Act 1912, to the person having charge of such lunatic and the sanctioning authority in the University shall pay only the amount which he thinks fit, to the person having charge of the lunatic and the surplus, if any, or such part thereof, as he thinks fit, shall be paid for the maintenance of such members of the lunatics family as are dependent on him for maintenance.

16.3 Any person who desires to claim under this rule shall send a written application in that behalf to the Finance Officer. Payment of amounts withdrawn shall be made in India only. The persons to whom the amounts are payable shall make their own arrangements, to receive payment in India.

Note

When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber has become payable under Rule 13, the Finance Officer, shall effect prompt payment of that portion of the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in regard to which there is no dispute or doubt, the balance being adjusted as soon after as may be.

16.4 Payments of the amount withdrawn shall be made immediately. The persons to whom the amounts are payable shall make their own arrangements to receive payment in India.

17. Investment of Fund

The deposits shall be credited to the account named 'Contributory Provident Fund Account' of the University, as soon as possible after the monthly accounts are closed. The balance in the Fund shall be kept and invested as provided in Rule 14 of Section I of Appendix A to this Statute.

18. Statement of Accounts

The Statement of the account to the credit of each subscriber shall be furnished to him in the manner provided in Rule 13 of Section 1 of Appendix 'A' to this Statute.

19. General

Clarification or ruling given by Government of India relating to CPF Rules (India) 1962 will be taken into consideration while applying these rules to the employees of the University.

20. Relaxation of the Provision of Rules in Individual Cases

When the Board of Management is satisfied that the operation of any of these rules is likely to cause undue hardship to a subscriber, the Board of Management may, notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, deal with the cases of such subscriber in such manner as may appear to be equitable.

21. Forms for (a) application for advances/part final withdrawal. Final payment of balances in the CPF, (b) sanction for withdrawals, (c) conversion of advances into withdrawals,, (d) general index register, (e) Provident Fund Ledger Folio, (f) Broad Sheet of CPF, (g) Register of Final Payment cases etc. shall be in such form as maybe prescribed for General Provident Fund under Appendix 'A' to Section I.
