

Mapping of Pos, PSOs, Cos and CSOs of “Master of Arts in Women’s and Gender Studies (MAWGS First Year)”

MAWGS 1st Year

- Acquaint students with academic disciplines of Women’s and Gender Studies
- Explain theories and concepts responsible for marginalization of women and other genders
- Provide foundational and theoretical knowledge towards two specializations in 2nd year
- Create avenues for academic and employment opportunities.

MWG001: Theories of Women’s and Gender Studies

- Gain knowledge of historical background of women’s and queer movements
- Critically analyze patriarchal constructions of knowledge in various disciplines
- Analyze the intersections of feminism and psychoanalysis, feminism and non-normative, and feminism and disability studies.

Assessment
Assignment and Term end Exam

MWG002: Gender and Power

- Critically analyze the intersectional approach to gender
- Understand the gender dimensions of societal structure and institutions.
- Interpret power dynamics in patriarchy through gender.

Assessment
Assignment and Term end Exam

MWG003: Constructing Gender through Arts and Media

- Obtain understanding of gender in different forms of media.
- Become familiar with reading and interpreting literary texts, films, other forms of media through a gender perspective
- Understand the construction of traditions in any performances.

Assessment
Assignment and Term end Exam

MWG004: Gendered Bodies and Sexualities

- Expand the knowledge on the gendered bodies.
- Know how gendered bodies are culturally constructed in complex ways.
- Interpret the diversified understandings reproduction, motherhood and sexuality.
- Critically analyze body politics.

Assessment
Assignment and Term end Exam

MWGP001 Project work

- Enable to apply theory into practical situations
- Have interface with Civil Society for hands on training

Assessment
Report submission (Research paper/internship /project)

Mapping of Pos, PSOs, Cos and CSOs of “Master of Arts in Women’s and Gender Studies (MAWGS Second Year)”

