

Master in Social Work (Counselling)(MSW-C)

OBJECTIVES

- To provide basic knowledge of human relationship;
- To introduce the learner to biological, psychological and developmental aspects of humans;
- To help the learner to have sound knowledge about the what, why and how of counselling services;
- To help the learner to understand the method of social case work and its relevance in counselling services;
- To explain how counselling a client can improve their psychological well-being through making choices, overcoming psychological blocks and facilitating actions

MSW-001 Origin and Development of Social Work

- 1) To explain historical development of social work education and practice in various continents.
- 2) To discuss values, principles and ethics of professional social work.
- 3) To describe social work education through distance learning in India.
- 4) To explain Social work concepts and methods of practice.

Assessment
Assignment and
Term End Exam

MSW-002 Professional Social Work: Indian Perspectives

- 1) To discuss evolution of social work practices in India.
- 2) To explain relation between religion and social work in the Indian context.
- 3) To describe Gandhian concepts related to social work.
- 4) To discuss social work in independent India: growth of education and training, indigenous literature, social workers in national development and career prospects.

Assessment
Assignment and
Term End Exam

MSW-005 Social Work Practicum and Supervision

- 1)To introduce social work practicum, its history, model and applicability in open distance learning.
- 2) To identify roles and expectations of stakeholders in social work practicum.
- 3) To describe models, functions, environmental aspects and open distance learning paradigm of fieldwork supervision.
- 4) To categorize social work practicum in various settings.

Assessment
Assignment and
Term End Exam

MSW-008 Social Group Work: Working with Groups

- 1) To discuss evolution, the advantages and disadvantages of social groupwork.
- 2) To describe models, theories and principles of groupwork practice.
- 3) To discuss leadership and life skills education in groupwork practice as well as principles and relevance of recording in groupwork.
- 4) To explain social groupwork in different settings and the role of a groupworker.

Assessment
Assignment and
Term End Exam

MSW-009 Community Organization Management for Community Development

- 1) To explain concepts of community, community work and development.
- 2) To discuss values, philosophy and history of community organization in the USA, the UK and India.
- 3) To describe concept, history, models, values, ethics and principles of social action.
- 4) To discuss the concept, history, types, characteristics, functions and principles of social administration.

Assessment
Assignment and
Term End Exam

MSWL-046 Social Work Practicum I

- 1) To understand the local situation, gain maximum benefits from the fieldwork placement in a NGO or any selected agency and to ensure that the minimum requirements mentioned in the field work journal are fulfilled: a pre-term self-assessment form; minimum 5 orientation visits to the selected institution in consultation with fieldwork supervisor; 45 compulsory concurrent fieldwork visits to the selected agency to learn intervention skills; 5 compulsory individual conferences with the fieldwork supervisor; 5 group conferences with fieldwork supervisor and peers; A term-end self-assessment form.
- 2) To write detailed reports of the fieldwork done

Assessment
Fieldwork Journal
evaluation by Fieldwork
Supervisor and External examiner

MSWL-047 Block Placement

- 1) To practice any one or two social work methods- group work, community organisation, social welfare administration, social action or social work research for a continuous period of 30 days at selected agency under provision of a professionally qualified social worker.
- 2) To write detailed reports of the above mentioned fieldwork done.

Assessment
Fieldwork Journal
evaluation by
Fieldwork
Supervisor and
External examiner

MSW-C (Second Year)

MSW-12 Introduction to Life Characteristics and Challenges

1. The life characteristics and challenges impacts various problems being confronted by people from various walks of life.
2. To facilitate the social work professionals in the helping process of working with individuals and families

Assessment
Assignment and Term End Exam

MSW-13 Introduction to Psychological Basis of Counselling

1. To deal with psychological aspect of a normal human being.
2. To discuss the important psychological concepts such as personality and it's relevance for social work practice.

Assessment
Assignment and Term End Exam

MSW-14 Relevance of Social Case Work in Counselling

1. To provide a broad understanding of social casework practice ad counselling as a helping relationship.
2. To provide a comprehensive understanding of basics of social case work and its application in various settings.

Assessment
Assignment and Term End Exam

MSW-15 Basics of Counselling

1. To introduce the concept of counselling and essentials and practical issues involved in counselling.
2. To provide the historical, ethical and legal aspects of counselling.
3. To explain various theories, models and the process of counselling.

Assessment
Assignment and Term End Exam

MSW-16 Fields of Counselling

1. To provide adequate understanding about the application of counselling in various health fields such as family and couple counselling, counselling in the field of health care, industry, education and counselling in social welfare sector.

Assessment
Assignment and Term End Exam

MSWL-048 Social Work Practicum II

1. To do fieldwork in an agency and complete tasks like: a pre-term self-assessment form; minimum 2 orientation visits to the selected institution in consultation with fieldwork supervisor; 45 compulsory concurrent fieldwork visits to the selected agency where counselling services are provided, and; 5 compulsory individual conferences with the fieldwork supervisor; 5 group conferences with fieldwork supervisor and peers; a term-end self-assessment form.
2. To write detailed reports of the fieldwork done and submit report of 5 cases in detail explaining various phases and components of case work.

Assessment
Fieldwork Journal evaluation by Fieldwork Supervisor and External examiner

MSWL-049 Internship

1. To do fieldwork at an organization for one month's duration.
2. To prepare an agency profile and practice report on any one of the methods of social work.
3. To attend 5 individual conferences with Fieldwork supervisor.
4. To provide an opportunity to work with a welfare organisation which will give exposure to various aspects covered under POSDCORB.
5. To write detailed reports of the above mentioned fieldwork done.

Assessment
Fieldwork Journal evaluation by Fieldwork Supervisor and External examiner