The Chairperson welcomed all the members and expressed that this meeting had to be arranged in a short span of time as there were proposals from two collaborators National Stock Exchange & Administrative Training Institute who wanted to have collaboration with Management Discipline. The meetings in relation to these two collaborators were earlier held with the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor along with the faculty of Management Discipline. The Vice-Chancellor had expressed his desire to move these proposals forward as the processes involved in making decisions take a longtime as the meetings of Statutory Bodies take place at different times.

Then she also informed that there is a letter from Ministry of HRD addressing many issues and the issue relating to SOMS is about decrease in enrolment of Management Programmes. A review committee is being formed in order to take effective steps to increase enrolment.
