

Dear Madam/Sir,

As you are aware that G20 focuses on inclusive, equitable, relevant and quality education and lifelong learning opportunities for all, within the theme of “One Earth, One Family, One Future”.

India proposes to build on and carry forward the past deliberations so as to transform the current educational system. There is a need to make education more relevant for the capacities and skills required to prepare the learners of all ages and throughout life in the digital era; encourage collaboration and partnerships between Higher Educational Institutions and industries and engagement with societies: strengthening Research, promoting Innovation for the quest of widening the horizons of knowledge and using it for the good of humankind.

Attainment of Sustainable Development Goals by adopting eco-friendly lifestyles through LiFE (Lifestyle for Environment) is a major priority in the days to come. With LiFE, the prevalent 'use-and-dispose' economy will be replaced with a circular economy, characterized by responsible consumption. In order to contribute significantly to LiFE, individuals will be encouraged to make lifestyle changes in day-to-day living.

5.	What are your suggestions for promoting digital skills to learners enrolled in the programme? It improve digital skills two things are very critical 1) Access to use of computers or smart phones. Together with the course material, loaning out laptops/ smartphones would help. This could be done by tying up with technology corporates who basically dump laptops because they are old or outdated. These could be collected at regional centres, cleaned repaired and loaned out. These could be returned to the centres. 2) The second thing is digital competence skills should be imparted at the centres for working on laptops and smartphones before contact classes for subject matter are introduced.

10	How to bridge the gap between HEIs and /industries/communities? Give your suggestions. IGNOU can tie up with ECCE programmes / schools/ large companies/ industries for internships so that students can get hands on skills that are marketable. All Universities running similar programmes have such provisions worked out. IGNOU can also enlist such organisations at the grassroots level. IGNOU can hold at regional level employment fairs where their students can attend and connect with employers. Centres can hold placement interviews and tests for students who are keen to have campus placements. Advertisements for these can be on website if IGNOU or other social media platforms. A lot more needs to be done in this area.
