Section—A

1. Explain with reference to the context any four of the following (100-150 words each) :  $4 \times 5 = 20$
- (a) For the akshara you scratched
on the walls so furtively,
the akshara you tried to match
With the sounds you heard
They've quickened now, with life.

Even as you wash rice, fish, vegetables

Even as you peel, cut, bake, stir and cook

The thieving letters on the wall will take wings.

(b) I measure every Grief I meet

With narrow, probing, eyes—

I wonder if it weighs like Mine—

Or has an Easier size.

(c) I wonder if it hurts to live—

And if They have to try—

And whether—could They choose between—

It would not be—to die—

(d) The grieved—are may—I am told—

There is the various Cause—

Death—is but one—and comes but once—

And only nails the eyes—

(e) The language I speak

Becomes mine, its distortions, its queerness

All mine, mine alone. It is half English, half

Indian, funny perhaps, but it is honest,

It is as human as I am human, don't

You see ?

It voices my joys, my longings, my

Hopes, and it is useful to me as cawing.....
