Mobile phone is a long-range portable electronic device that is used for communication. It has changed the way we communicate whether for work or for leisure. It has become an indispensable part of our life. We are now less constrained by time and geographical location. One can communicate with other from any place and any time.

Mobile phones are now within budget, easy to use, and equipped with latest features. One can send text messages, photos, and videos through a mobile phone. Social networking sites, like Facebook, Twitter, etc. are accessible from a mobile device. One can use internet, send and receive e-mail messages, watch movies, play games, watch TV programs on a mobile phone. One can capture pleasant moments by clicking the photos through the camera of the mobile phone. It helps the travelers to stay connected.

Mobile phones are also lifesavers as they can help in emergency situations. If a person gets stuck in a difficult situation and finds no one for help, she/he can use a mobile phone to call for help. It has become a multi-utility device. It has become a sort of necessity, not mere vanity of pride.
