No. of Printed Pages : 3 MGGL–004(Set-I)

M. SC. (GEOGRAPHY) (MSCGG)
Term-End Practical Examination
June, 2026
MGGL-004(Set-I) : FIELD SURVEY METHODS : PHYSICAL AND SOCIO-ECONOMIC

Time : 3 Hours Maximum Marks : 50

Note : Attempt any five questions. Marks are indicated against each question. Each questions carries equal marks.

1. Discuss different activities involved in the process of geographic enquiry. Explain the three phases of field survey. 10
2. How do you identify a good research problem ? Formulate three objectives and three research questions on the following research problem : "The moral responsibilities of government authorities and public participation in addressing climate change impacts on vulnerable coastal communities." 10

3. What guidelines one should follow for preparing a 'schedule' ? Prepare a schedule for conducting socio-economic household survey to collect the data related to education and health. 10

4. Draw a 'Hythergraph' for the given data and explain its characteristics. 10

Month	Temperature (°C)	Rainfall (mm)
January	14	24
February	17	21
March	22	16
April	29	7
May	34	8
June	32	200
July	30	173
August	29	140
September	25	30
October	24	25
November	19	2
December	15	5

5. How do you conduct 'Focus Group Discussion (FGD)' in geographical issues ? Explain FGD by formulating five questions related to any local issue. 10
6. Describe in detail various sources of secondary data in India. 10
7. Explain integration of spatial and non-spatial data with suitable illustrations. 10

× × × × ×