Workshop Conducted on Research and Project Writing for MBA Learners

IGNOU Regional Centre Delhi-2 organised an online workshop on "Quality Parameters of an MBA Dissertation: Ensuring Rigour, Originality, and Academic Excellence" on August 18 for MBA learners, focusing on the academic requirements and research standards to be followed while preparing their project reports.

The programme commenced with a welcome address by Dr. Meena Singh, Regional Director, IGNOU Regional Centre Delhi-2 and Workshop Coordinator. She welcomed the participants and highlighted the importance of project work in the MBA programme, particularly in applying classroom learning to a specific research problem. Dr. D. P. Singh, Senior Regional Director, Regional Centre Delhi-2, also addressed the participants and emphasised the need to maintain academic quality and rigour in their research work.

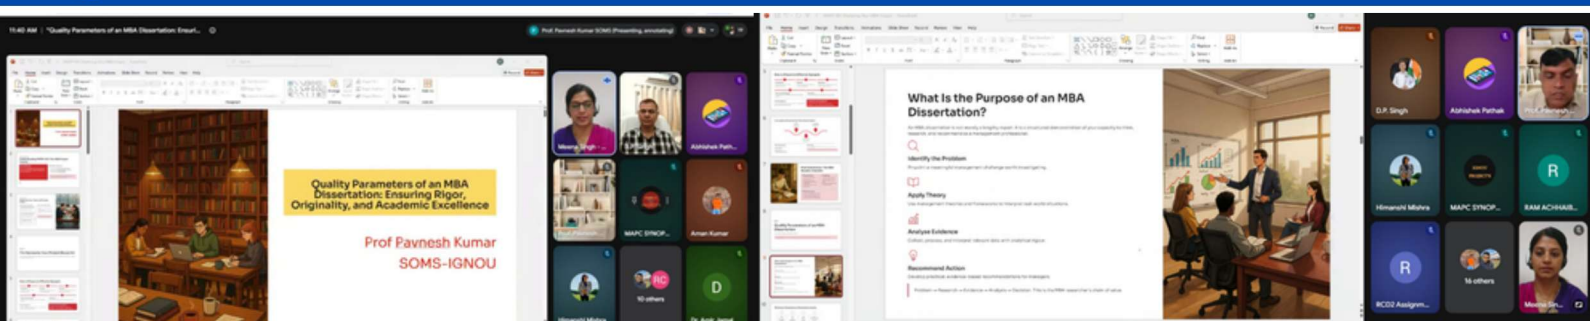

Professor Pavnesh Kumar, School of Management Studies (SOMS), IGNOU, Maidan Garhi, served as the subject expert for the session. He discussed the essential aspects of preparing an MBA dissertation, including identifying a relevant research topic, formulating the research problem and objectives, reviewing existing literature, choosing an appropriate methodology, collecting and analysing data, and presenting the findings in a clear and systematic manner.

Professor Kumar also emphasised originality, proper referencing, avoidance of plagiarism, and adherence to academic and ethical standards. The session was interactive, giving learners an opportunity to raise queries, discuss their project work, and seek guidance on different aspects of their research.

The workshop was attended by MBA learners as well as academics from other IGNOU Regional Centres. It strengthened learners' understanding of research and project work, while contributing to the University's commitment to providing quality academic support and research-oriented guidance. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr Amir Jamal, Regional Director, IGNOU Regional Centre Delhi-2.
